Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1893 British Book News ,1977 Cutting a Figure Richard J. Powell,2008 Examining portraits of black people over the past two centuries Cutting a Figure argues that these images should be viewed as a distinct category of portraiture that differs significantly from depictions of people with other racial and ethnic backgrounds The difference Richard Powell contends lies in the social capital that stems directly from the black subject s power to subvert dominant racist representations by evincing such traits as self composure self adornment and self imagining Powell forcefully supports this argument with evidence drawn from a survey of nineteenth century portraits in depth case studies of the postwar fashion model Donyale Luna and the contemporary portraitist Barkley L Hendricks and insightful analyses of images created since the late 1970s Along the way he discusses major artists such as Fr d ric Bazille John Singer Sargent James Van Der Zee and David Hammons alongside such overlooked producers of black visual culture as the Tonka and Nike corporations Combining previously unpublished images with scrupulous archival research Cutting a Figure illuminates the ideological nature of the genre and the centrality of race and cultural identity in understanding modern and contemporary portraiture Penshurst Castle in the Time of Sir Philip Sidney Emma Marshall,1894 The Publishers Weekly ,1887 The Uselessness of Art Peter Lamarque,2019-10-10 Oscar Wilde s famous quip All art is quite useless might not be as outrageous or demonstrably false as is often supposed No one denies that much art begins life with practical aims in mind religious moral political propagandistic or the aggrandising of its subjects But those works that survive the test of time will move into contexts where for new audiences any initial instrumental values recede and the works come to be valued for their own sake The book explores this idea and its ramifications The glorious Palaeolithic paintings on the walls of the Chauvet Cave present a stark example In spite of total ignorance of their original purposes we irresistibly describe the paintings as works of art and value them as such Here we are at the very limits of what is meant by art and aesthetic appreciation Are we misusing these terms in such an application The question goes to the heart of the scope and ambition of aesthetics Must aesthetics in its pursuit of art and beauty inevitably be culture bound Or can it transcend cultural differences and speak meaningfully of universal values timelessly human not merely historically relative The case of literature or film puts further pressure on the idea of art valued for its own sake Characters in works of literature and film or finely honed emotions in poetry often give pleasure precisely because they resonate with our own lives and seem in the great works to say something profound about human existence Is not this kind of insight why we value such works Yet the conclusion is not quite as clear cut as it might seem and the idea of valuing something for its own sake never quite goes away ACTOR IN AN Art Business Martin Keith Sopocy,2024-12-02

The author of this manuscript is dyslexic I suppose that means that I see things backwards Also I tend to skip steps in the chain of logic and replace them with powerful intuitive responses Through my writing I have achieved originality I have functioned with dyslexia all my life but I have learned to make an asset of it My dyslexia diagnosis is fundamental to my work as a writer My dyslexia is not something to be suppressed as my goal is to use this manuscript to encourage others with the same disability I was able to obtain a Bachelor s degree from the University of Chicago work successfully as a play reader for the National Broadcasting Company NBC and finally as an employment interviewer for the Labor Department of the State of New York Looking back on life at 80 years of age I have never had a job that I didn t like or was not able to excel in I am sharing my life long history with dyslexia as encouragement to others with similar disabilities By sharing this information my desire is to encourage others with the same or similar disabilities I have authored a manuscript that has the viewpoint that is a product of a singular mode of perception and has a distinct value in its presentation My work is no less valid due to my penchant for skipping steps in the expected chain of logic in didactic writing I have presented a valid depiction of my subject William Holden Overall this is an ambitious undertaking As an author I have endeavored consistently to create a work that is based on good scholarship and depicts the career of William Holden honestly and with admiration Representative American Short Stories Robert William Chambers,1923 Catalogue of Books in the Boston Library, June, 1830, etc
