Culturally Considerate School Counseling Kim L. Anderson, 2010-09-07 This compassionately written guidebook cultivates cultural competence integrates ASCA National Model standards and provides strategies for exploring each student s individuality and responding accordingly Faith and Health Thomas G. Plante, Allen C. Sherman, 2001-08-02 This volume reviews and integrates the growing body of contemporary psychological research on the links between religious faith and health outcomes. It presents up to date findings from empirical studies of populations ranging from healthy individuals to those with specific clinical problems including cancer, HIV, AIDS and psychological disorders. Drawing on multiple perspectives in psychology, the book examines such critical questions as the impact of religious practices on health behaviors and health risks, the role played by faith in adaptation to illness or disability and possible influences on physiological functioning and mortality. Chapters reflect the close collaboration of the editors and contributing authors who discuss commonalities and differences in their work, debate key methodological concerns and outline a cohesive agenda for future research.
