Hermeneutical Perspectives of Women in the Ordained Office of the Ekklesia E. L. Reed, 2010-08-18 Religious Experience Among Second Generation Korean Americans Mark Chung Hearn, 2016-05-26 This book explores the ways through which Korean American men demonstrate and navigate their manhood within a US context that has historically sorted them into several limiting often emasculating stereotypes In the US Korean men tend to be viewed as passive non athletic and asexual or hypersexual They are often burdened with very specific expectations that run counter to traditional tropes of US masculinity According to the normative script of masculinity a man is rugged individualistic and powerful the antithesis of the US social construction of Asian American men In an interdisciplinary fashion this book probes the lives of Korean American men through the lenses of religion and sports Though these and other outlets can serve to empower Korean American men to resist historical scripts that limit their performance of masculinity they can also become harmful Mark Chung Hearn utilizes ethnography participant observation and interviews conducted with second generation Korean American men to explore what it means to be an Asian American man today Sticky Learning Holly J. today Embodied Hope Veronica Miles,2021-12-29 Embodied Hope explores implications of an embodied theology of hope for preachers ability to nurture imaginative abundance and purposeful hope filled action in the most chaotic of times Embodied hope is grounded in a theological anthropology that foregrounds humanity s inherent identity as imago Dei and capacity to live as a nondistorting nondestructive reflection of God s presence in the earth The conceptual metaphor embodied Hope represents that which creates within each of us yearning for wholeness and well being the always speaking voice of God s Spirit assuring us of God s power faithfulness and redemptive presence and calling us toward loving just and restorative action in our world today Humans possess the capacity to imagine and live toward a qualitatively better state of existence for all creation but overwhelmed by the despairing realities of life we often feel despondent and drained of imaginative potential Preaching amplifies the voice of Hope bearing witness and inviting us to imagine the possibility and efficacy of a new reality grounded in Jesus s gospel proclamation Embodied Hope invites us to stand at the intersection of Hope and despair as we explore the contours and possibilities of living with Hope in times such as the present When Stories Wound Nathaniel Samuel,2025-02-15 How is moral agency shaped by the narratives we inherit tell and live through How do we live responsibly in a world shaped by narrative When Stories Wound explores the significance of narrative for moral agency and engages the harm that our current polarizations have inflicted This harm is often rooted in false stereotyping and dehumanizing narratives about others by which we rationalize the existence of the wounded and abrogate responsibility for the work of healing and restoration Faced with the task of discerning how to live within our increasingly contested public spaces Nathaniel Samuel suggests that the primary moral question for today is not centered on questioning what is the right thing to do but rather asking What are the right stories that must be known and what is the fitting response When Stories Wound urges readers to be conscious of the stories we live and to re imagine what responsibility looks like as only such commitment can break the hold of the divisive myths that we live and recover the truth of our common humanity shared brokenness and mutual dependence From Generation to Generation Charles R. Foster,2012-10-02 Mainline Protestant congregations face a profound adaptive challenge In the midst of significant social cultural and technological change the denominations they represent generally abandoned a view of education capable of maintaining and renewing their faith traditions through their children and youth New curriculum resources and innovative pedagogical strategies appropriated from the marketplace of religious education options have not met the challenge A transformation of consciousness is required in congregations seeking a future through their children It involves the exercise of an ecclesial imagination to reclaim a view of education rooted in the revitalization of their religious traditions in the past and re envisioning the congregation as a catechetical culture of faith formation Intergenerational Catechesis timone a davis,2021-03-12 In this work the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author s method of African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized Engaged Teaching in Theology and Religion Renee K. Harrison,Jennie S. Knight,2015-10-21 This book guides scholars and teachers of theology and religion through a process of self reflection that leads to intentional transformative teaching dialogue and reform in theological education and religious studies The Spiritual Lives of Young African Americans Almeda M. Wright,2017 The Spiritual Lives of Young African Americans examines the role of spirituality in adolescent development and the ways that youth negotiate their world and offers a vision of life for young people who are too often surrounded by death
