The Marshall Plan In Austria:

The Marshall Plan in Austria Gunter Bischof, Anton Pelinka, Dieter Stiefel, 2018-12-20 Perhaps no country benefitted more from the Marshall Plan for assistance in reconstruction of Europe after World War II than Austria On a per capita basis each American taxpayer invested 80 per person in the Plan each Austrian received 133 from the European recovery program more than any other of the sixteen participating countries Without the Marshall Plan the Austrian economic miracle of the 1950s would have been unthinkable Despite this contemporary Austria seems to have forgotten this essential American contribution to its postwar reconstruction This volume in the Contemporary Austrian Studies series examines how the plan affected Austria and how it is perceived today The political context of the Marshall Plan in Austria is addressed in essays by Jill Lewis and Matthew Berg Dieter Stiefer describes the vast Soviet economic exploitation of their Austrian occupation zone Andrea Komlosy shows how the Marshall Plan helped complete the division of Europe Siegfried Beer suggests the secret involvement of the CIA in the Marshall Plan while Hans J3rgen Schr der analyzes the effectiveness of Marshall Plan propaganda programs in Germany and Austria The macroeconomic impact of Marshall Plan funds on Austrian economic policy is outlined by Hans Seidel Kurt Tweraser Georg Rigele and G3nter Bischof suggest the microeconomic importance of funds for the steel electricity and tourist sectors of the Austrian economy Wilhelm Kohler s sweeping analysis compares the American transfer of funds to postwar Europe with current debates about the cost of European Union enlargement The legacy of the Marshall Plan is addressed by former Austrian Finance Minister Ferdinand Lacina Kurt Löffler and Hans Fubenegger summarize the activities of the Economic Recovery Program Fund Coming on the heels of the fiftieth anniversary of the Marshall Plan this compelling overview of the Plan and its impact will be important for historians those interested in international politics and Austrian scholars G3nter Bischof is professor of history and associate director of Center Austria at the University of New Orleans Anton Pelinka is professor of political science at the University of Innsbruck and director of the Institute of Conflict Research in Vienna Dieter Stiefel is professor of social and economic history at the University of Vienna and executive secretary of the Schumpeter Society in Vienna This volume offers a collection of articles mostly by contemporary Austrian born historians touching on various phases of the Marshall Plan administered through the European Recovery Program ERP and its successors counterfunds assistance to the present A splendid introduction followed by the key thirteen articles on the plan is augmented by several nontopical essays and book reviews along with a survey of Austrian politics in 1998 A number of articles emanated from a 1998 conference at the University of New Orleans Both novice and specialist will appreciate this book The Marshall plan in Austria - an analysis Gisela Spreitzhofer, 2006-01-12 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject History of Germany Postwar Period Cold War grade A Johns Hopkins University SAIS Bologna Center language English abstract The Austrian Republic which had been unable to survive economically in the aftermath of World War I recovered surprisingly quickly from the serious economic consequences of World War II In fact it became one of the world's wealthiest nations within a few years only achieving extraordinarily high growth rates and per capita income increases on an international scale The Marshall Plan's historical role for Austria is a topic that has been rather neglected by historians for several decades By writing this paper I would like to make a contribution to the memory of the Marshall Plan which was the biggest reconstruction aid project ever Perhaps no country benefited more from it than Austria Between 1948 and 1952 the United States supported Austria with goods worth approximately one billion dollars which cost each American tax payer 80 dollars Each Austrian received 133 dollars from the Plan more than any other of the sixteen participating Western European countries Apart from its economic effect the Marshall Plan also transported the American way of life to Western Europe and Austria I would like to start this paper by giving an overview of how Austria's economic situation was like immediately after the end of World War II The following chapter discusses the birth of the Marshall Plan first on the Western then on the Eastern side of the Atlantic Then I will focus chronologically on the stages of Austria's participation in the Plan before its impact on Austrian post war identity building will be explained A conclusion will finish the paper

Bischof, 2014-04-28 After the breakup of the Habsburg Monarchy the Austrian American relationship was characterized by a dwarf confronting a giant America continued to be a heaven for a better life for many Austrian emigrants For the growing American preponderant position in the world after World War I the small Austrian Republic was insignificant And yet there were times when Austria mattered geopolitically During the post World War II occupation of Austria the U S helped reconstruct Austria economically and was the biggest champion of its independence During the Cold War the U S frequently used Austria as a mediator site of summit meetings American mass production models consumerism and popular culture were adopted by Austrian youth Americanization and American preponderance also produced anti Americanism With the end of the Cold War and Austria's accession to the European Union it once again lost significance for Washington's geopolitics

Pelinka The Americanization of Vienna is the subject of journalist Armin Thurnher's essay Comparisons with West Germany are presented by Michael Hochgesc Austria in the Nineteen Fifties Gunter Bischof, 2020-03-09 In American history the 1950s are remembered as an affluent and harmonious decade Not so in Austria That nation emerged out of World War II with tremendous war related destruction and with a four power occupation that would last for ten years until 1955 Massive American economic aid enabled the Austrian economy to start recovering in the 1950s and reorient it from East to West Unlike the United States however general affluence did not set in until the 1960s and 1970s even though Austria's dramatic baby boom enabled it to recover from the demographic catastrophe resulting from manpower losses of World War II This volume deals with these larger trends Stephen E Ambrose discusses American European relations and sets the larger international context for the Austrian scene Oilver Rathkolb retraces the changing importance of the Austrian question for the Eisenhower administration Michael Gehler presents an in depth analysis of the intriguing question of whether Austria's unification at the price of permanent neutrality might have been a model for Germany Franz Mathis and Kurt Tweraser look at economic reconstruction and the roles played by both the Austrian public industrial sector and the American Marshall Plan Karin Schmidlechner looks at the youth culture of the era Franz Adlgasser shows how Herbert Hoover's food aid was instrumental in the containment of communism in Hungary Beth Noveck analyzes Austrian political culture of the First Republic from the perspective of Hugo Bettauer Rolf Steininger presents an insightful historical overview of how the Austro Italian South Tyrol conflict was resolved after seventy five years of tension The Red Army in Austria Stefan Karner, Barbara Stelzl-Marx, 2020-09-02 Based on a broad array of sources from Russian and Austrian archives this collection provides a comprehensive analysis of the Soviet occupation of Austria from 1945 to 1955 The contributors cover a wide range of topics including the Soviet Secret Services the military kommandaturas Soviet occupation policies the withdrawal of troops in 1955 everyday life the image of the Russians violence against women arrests deportations Soviet aid provisions as well as children of occupation Austria United States.
