Ball,1982-02-01 First released in 1978 and still the best account of territorial law enforcement this book presents a thoroughly researched well documented and entertaining history of United States marshals in New Mexico and Arizona during the tumultuous territorial years Included in the story are notable lawmen such as John Pratt John E Sherman and Creighton M Foraker and gunfighters like Billy the Kid Doc Holliday and the Earp Brothers With detailed accounts of many other lesser known lawmen and criminals Ball gives a well rounded history of the mundane as well as the spectacular incidents in the lives of these lawmen during the unstable territorial years Manifest Destiny's Underworld Robert E. May,2003-04-03 This fascinating study sheds new light on antebellum America's notorious filibusters the freebooters and adventurers who organized or participated in armed invasions of nations with whom the United States was formally at peace Offering the first full scale analysis of the filibustering movement Robert May relates the often tragic stories of illegal expeditions into Cuba Mexico Ecuador Nicaragua and other Latin American countries and details surprising numbers of aborted plots as well May investigates why thousands of men joined filibustering expeditions how they were financed and why the U S government had little success in curtailing them Surveying antebellum popular media he shows how the filibustering phenomenon infiltrated the American psyche in newspapers theater music advertising and literature Condemned abroad as pirates frequently in language strikingly similar to modern American denunciations of foreign terrorists the filibusters were often celebrated at home as heroes who epitomized the spirit of Manifest Destiny May concludes by exploring the national consequences of filibustering arguing that the practice inflicted lasting damage on U S relations with foreign countries and contributed to the North South division over slavery that culminated in the Civil War Napoleon and the Marshals of the Empire ...,1858
