Customs Court, 1939 Fish into Wine Peter E. Pope, 2012-12-01 Combining innovative archaeological analysis with historical research Peter E Pope examines the way of life that developed in seventeenth century Newfoundland where settlement was sustained by seasonal migration to North America's oldest industry the cod fishery. The unregulated English settlements that grew up around the exchange of fish for wine served the fishery by catering to nascent consumer demand. The English Shore became a hub of transatlantic trade linking Newfoundland with the Chesapeake, New and old England, southern Europe and the Atlantic islands. Pope gives special attention to Ferryland, the proprietary colony founded by Sir George Calvert, Lord Baltimore in 1621 but later taken over by the London merchant Sir David Kirke and his remarkable family. The saga of the Kirkes provides a narrative line connecting social and economic developments on the English Shore with metropolitan merchants' proprietary rivalries and international competition. Employing a rich variety of evidence to place the fisheries in the context of transatlantic commerce, Pope makes Newfoundland a fresh point of view for understanding the demographic, economic and cultural history of the expanding North Atlantic world.
