German Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1350-1600 Maryan W. Ainsworth, Joshua P. Waterman, Dorothy Mahon, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013 Paintings by Renaissance masters Lucas Cranach the Elder Albrecht Durer and Hans Holbein the Younger are among the works featured in this lavish volume the first to comprehensively study the largest collection of early German paintings in America These works created in the 14th through 16th centuries in the region that comprises present day Germany Austria and Switzerland include religious images such as Virgin and Child with Saint Anne by Durer and the double sided altarpiece The Dormition of the Virgin by Hans Schaufelein as well as remarkable portraits by Holbein and the iconic Judgment of Paris by Cranach In all more than 70 works are thoroughly discussed and analyzed making this volume an incomparable resource for the study of this rich artistic period

The Renaissance Print, 1470-1550 David Landau, Peter W. Parshall, 1994-01-01 Through an examination of material and institutional circumstances through the study of work shop practices and of technical and aesthetic experimentation this book seeks to give an account of the ways in which Renaissance prints were realized distributed acquired and handled by their public

LIVELIER THAN LIFE, 1985 Satire, Veneration, and St. Joseph in Art, c. 1300-1550 Anne Williams, 2025-10-01 Satire Veneration and St Joseph in Art c 1300 1550 is the first book to reclaim satire as a central component of Catholic altarpieces devotional art and veneration moving beyond humor s relegation to the medieval margins or to the profane arts alone The book challenges humor s perception as a mere teaching tool for the laity and the antithesis of high veneration and theology a divide perpetuated by Counter Reformation thought and the inheritance of Mikhail Bakhtin Rabelais and His World 1965 It reveals how humor laughter and material culture played a critical role in establishing St Joseph as an exemplar in western Europe as early as the thirteenth century Its goal is to open a new line of interpretation in medieval and early modern cultural studies by revealing the functions of humor in sacred scenes the role of laughter as veneration and the importance of play for pre Reformation religious experiences

Carroll, 2022-06-28 A new and exciting interpretation of Bosch s masterpiece repositioning the triptych as a history of humanity and the natural world Hieronymus Bosch s c 1450 1516 Garden of Earthly Delights has elicited a sense of wonder for centuries Over ten feet long and seven feet tall it demands that we step back to take it in while its surface intricately covered with fantastical creatures in dazzling detail draws us closer In this highly original reassessment Margaret D Carroll reads the Garden as a speculation about the origin of the cosmos the life history of earth and the transformation of humankind from the first age of world history to the last Upending traditional interpretations of the painting as a moralizing depiction of God s wrath human sinfulness and demonic agency Carroll argues that it represents Bosch s exploration of progressive changes in the human condition and the natural world Extensively researched and beautifully illustrated this groundbreaking secular analysis draws on new findings about Bosch s idiosyncratic painting technique his curiosity about natural history his connections to the Burgundian court and his experience of contemporary politics The book offers fresh insights into the artist and his most beloved and elusive painting The Origins of Life

Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition The Thief, the Cross and the Wheel Mitchell B. Merback,2001-03-15 Christ s Crucifixion is one of the most recognized images in Western culture and it has come to stand as a universal symbol of both suffering and salvation But often overlooked is the fact that ultimately the Crucifixion is a scene of capital punishment Mitchell Merback reconstructs the religious legal and historical context of the Crucifixion and of other images of public torture The result is a fascinating account of a time when criminal justice and religion were entirely interrelated and punishment was a visual spectacle devoured by a popular audience Merback compares the images of Christ s Crucifixion with those of the two thieves who met their fate beside Jesus In paintings by well known Northern European masters and provincial painters alike Merback finds the two thieves subjected to incredible cruelty cruelty that artists could not depict in their scenes of Christ s Crucifixion because of theological requirements Through these representations Merback explores the ways audiences in early modern Europe understood images of physical suffering and execution The frequently shocking works also provide a perspective from which Merback examines the live spectacle of public torture and execution and how audiences were encouraged by the Church and the State to react to the experience Throughout Merback traces the intricate and extraordinary connections among religious art devotional practice bodily pain punishment and judicial spectatorship Keenly aware of the difficulties involved in discussing images of atrocious violence but determined to make them historically comprehensible Merback has written an informed and provocative study that reveals the rituals of medieval criminal justice and the visual experiences they engendered The Robert Lehman Collection John Pope-Hennessy,1987 Heroines, Harpies, and Housewives Martha Moffitt Peacock,2020-11-16 Co Honorable Mention for the 2021 Book Award by the Society for the Study of Early Modern Women and Gender SSEMWG In Heroines Harpies and Housewives Martha Moffitt Peacock provides a novel interpretive approach to the artistic practice of Imaging Women of Consequence in the Dutch Golden Age From the beginnings of the new Republic visual celebrations of famous heroines who crossed gender boundaries by fighting in the Revolt against Spain or by distinguishing themselves in arts and letters became an essential and significant cultural tradition that reverberated throughout the long seventeenth century This collective memory of consequential heroines who equaled or outshone men is frequently reflected in empowering representations of other female archetypes authoritative harpies and noble housewives Such enabling imagery helped in the structuring of gender norms that positively advanced a powerful female identity in Dutch society A Checklist of Painters, C1200-1994 Represented in the Witt Library, Courtauld Institute of Art, London Witt Library,1995 The Witt Library of the Courtauld Institute of Art London is one of the world s greatest art history libraries It contains some 1 7 million illustrations of the work of painters draughtsmen and engravers of the Western tradition all of whom have been indexed by name dates and nationality This new second edition of the Checklist of Painters is a transcription of the Witt index as it currently exists The names of 66 000 artists their dates and their nationality or school are reproduced in alphabetical order The Checklist of Painters is probably the most exhaustive work of its kind in existence it now lists all painters known by art historians to have lived and worked from the year 1200 to 1994 Troubled Vision E. Campbell,R. Mills,2016-04-30 Troubled Vision is an interdisciplinary collection of essays that explores the interface between gender sexuality and vision in medieval culture The volume represents an exciting array of scholarship dealing with visual and textual cultures from the Eleventh to the Fifteenth centuries Bringing together a range of theoretical approaches that address the troubling effects of vision on medieval texts and images the book mediates between medieval and modern constructions of gender and sexuality Troubled Vision focuses thematically on four central themes Desire looking representation and reading Topics include the gender of the gaze the visibility of queer desires troubled representations of gender and sexuality spectacle and reader response and the visual troubling of modern critical categories Illuminations Sandra Hindman,1997 The twenty seven illuminations catalogued in this volume part of a series cataloguing the more than two thousand works of art in the Robert Lehman Collection at The Metropolitan Museum of Art include illustrations for manuscripts and early instances of small paintings on parchment conceived as independent works of art Metropolitan Museum of Art website Painting on Light Barbara Butts, Lee Hendrix,2001-03-01 The names Albrecht Dürer and Hans Holbein the Younger evoke the dazzling accomplishments of
