The Mathis Maxims Larry L. Mathis, 2001 When Larry L Mathis was selected CEO of The Methodist Healthcare System in Houston at age 39 he began keeping a journal of the truth as he saw it in the form of maxims Each is the product of excruciating experience and told with often hilarious details The range of Mathis experiences led him to understand that Leadership in life and death situations is different than that described in the management books While his maxims primarily deal with the challenges every leader faces they also touch on life love wisdom and folly These maxims are valuable and entertaining reading for both the beginning executive and the seasoned executive especially those in health care leadership

Birthing of Great Leaders David Ray Mathis, Sr, 2020-11-14 Over a span of 35 years Dr David Mathis Sr has evangelized ministered in homes been involved in prison ministry and other areas of service for the glory of God This book is dedicated to Dr Mathis father James Ray Mathis who is with God but his influence and example of great Christian leadership are ever present deeply rooted and continuous

The Jethro Principle David Eakin, 2014 Commitment to honesty and integrity in leadership and personal accountability of leaders has fallen on hard times Over the past few decades headlines have declared the erosion of corporate and individual ethics Enhancing profits cooking the books making bad investments padding their own pockets at the expense of other stakeholders and other fraudulent activities have brought about a desperate need to rediscover true leadership In The Jethro Principle Rediscovering Leadership author David Eakin reminds us that we can find all the guiding principles needed for effective true leadership in the Bible More than 3 500 years ago a reasonably obscure man by the name of Jethro laid down an extraordinary and dynamic set of leadership principles for his son in law Moses to consider They are nestled in chapter eighteen of the book of Exodus Self inventories can aid you in knowing where you fall on a scale of true leadership help you discover your strengths and weaknesses and show you how to handle those weaknesses Have the principles remained relevant after all these years Are they still applicable in the arena of business and leadership today The Jethro Principle demonstrates that they are And they may be even more relevant in today s fast paced world
