The Mercy Killer:

The Mercy Killers Lisa Reardon, 2005-09-06 From a fierce voice in American literature a psychological drama that combines gripping suspense and unforgettable characters in a story of murder love violent passion and moral responsibility Seventy years old ill and bent by the ravages of time and loss of self respect Old Jerry wants to die Charlie Simpkins Old Jerry's grandson is a petty crook with a taste for trouble alcohol and the wrong sort of women his older brother P T is sweetly naive and very troubled and could just possibly be convinced that such a death would be a kindness But when Old Jerry fails to show up for his birthday party and later turns up dead Charlie wants to deflect attention from P T serves in Vietnam to avoid prison time Several years later Charlie returns angry and dangerous with a new wife and lingering nightmares from the war He finds that his brother is living happily in a half way house his ex girlfriend is gone and another friend is married But family harmony eludes Charlie he is torn between living straight with his new wife and returning to the familiar comfort and excitement of his criminal friends this is one crime he had nothing to do with his friends for the murder when he learns that yet again all evidence points to P T A small and isolated world a world where laws and taboos are broken on a daily basis and family loyalty replaces moral accountability Lisa Reardon's new novel is a deeply involving and satisfying story that illustrates just how far fear can drive us and where love can sometime send us Euthanasia, Ethics and the Law Richard Huxtable, 2007-11-20 Euthanasia Ethics and the Law argues that the law governing the ending of life in England and Wales is unclear confused and often contradictory It shows that the rules are in competition because the ethical principles underlying them are so diverse and conflicting This book covers topics including the Diane Pretty litigation Lord Joffe's Assisted Dying for the Terminally Ill Bill the advent of death tourism and the real status of involuntary and passive euthanasia in English law Murder, Manslaughter and Infanticide Great Britain: Law Commission, 2006-11-29 A Law Commission consultation paper A new homicide act for England and Wales was published as LCCP 177 ISBN 0117302643 in April 2006

Feinberg offers insightful commentary into various notions attached to self inflicted harm covering such topics as legal paternalism personal sovereignty and its boundaries voluntariness and assumptions of risk consent and its counterfeits coercive force incapacity and choice of death Advanced Introduction to Substantive Criminal Law Stephen J. Morse,2023-06-01 This Advanced Introduction to Substantive Criminal Law explores the doctrines issues and controversies in the substantive field of criminal law Chapters cover important theoretical and doctrinal topics including the justifications for state blame and punishment the foundations for criminalization the prima facie case affirmative defences of justification and excuse and sentencing Stephen J Morse uses copious concrete examples drawn from cases statutes and extended case studies including the intricate grading of homicide to enliven the discussion Burying the Hatchet Chris Well,2011 What happens when a psychic and a minister are invited to a debate and both walk into the room but only one leaves alive Longtime grump Earl Walker thinks it may be time to find a different church as his new pastor is now a suspect in murder But can Earl s lady friend convince him to stand up for his newfound friends and fight for the truth The Routledge Handbook of Criminal Justice Ethics Jonathan Jacobs,Jonathan Jackson,2016-07-01 The enormous financial cost of criminal justice has motivated increased scrutiny and recognition of the need for constructive change but what of the ethical costs of current practices and policies Moreover if we seriously value the principles of liberal democracy then there is no question that the ethics of criminal justice are everybody s business concerns for the entire society The Routledge Handbook of Criminal Justice Ethics brings together international scholars to explore the most significant ethical issues throughout their many areas of expertise anchoring their discussions in the empirical realities of the issues faced rather than applying moral theory at a distance Contributions from philosophers legal scholars criminologists and psychologists bring a fresh and interdisciplinary approach to the field The Handbook is divided into three parts Part I addresses the core issues concerning criminal sanction the moral and political aspects of the justification of punishment and the relationship between law and morality Part II examines criminalization and criminal liability and the assumptions and attitudes shaping those aspects of contemporary criminal justice Part III evaluates current policies and practices of criminal procedure exploring the roles of police prosecutors judges and juries and suggesting directions for revising how criminal justice is achieved Throughout scholars seek pathways for change and suggest new solutions to address the central concerns of criminal justice ethics This book is an ideal resource for upper undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses in criminal justice ethics criminology and criminal justice theory and also for students of philosophy interested in punishment law and society and law and ethics The Modern Art of Dying Shai J. Lavi,2009-01-10 How we die reveals much about how we live In this provocative book Shai Lavi traces the history of euthanasia in the United States to show how changing attitudes toward death reflect new and troubling ways of experiencing pain hope and freedom Lavi begins with the historical meaning of euthanasia as signifying an easeful death Over time he shows the term came to mean a death blessed by the grace of God and later medical hastening of death Lavi illustrates these changes with compelling accounts of changes at the deathbed He takes us from early nineteenth century deathbeds governed by religion through the medicalization of death with the physician presiding over the deathbed to the legalization of physician assisted suicide Unlike previous books which have focused on law and technique as explanations for the rise of euthanasia this book asks why law and technique have come to play such a central role in the way we die What is at stake in the modern way of dying is not human progress but rather a fundamental change in the way we experience life in the face of death Lavi argues In attempting to gain control over death he maintains we may unintentionally have ceded control to policy makers and bio scientific enterprises

The Insanity Defense Mark D. White, 2017-01-23 How often is the defense of insanity or temporary insanity for accused criminals valid or is it ever legitimate This unique work presents multidisciplinary viewpoints that explain support and critique the insanity defense as it stands What is the role of the insanity defense as a legal excuse How does U S law handle criminal trials where the defendant pleads insanity and how does our legal system s treatment differ from those of other countries or cultures How are insanity defenses used and how successful are these defenses for the accused What are the costs of incarceration versus psychiatric treatment and confinement This book presents a range of expert viewpoints on the insanity defense exposing common myths investigating its effectiveness and place in our legal system through history case studies and comparative analysis and supplying perspectives from the disciplines of psychology psychiatry sociology and neuroscience The content also addresses the ramifications of declaring citizens insane or incapacitated and examines trials that involved pleas of insanity and temporary insanity

Empty Justice Melanie Williams, 2013-03-04 Utilising literature as a serious source of challenges to questions in philosophy and law this book provides a fresh perspective not only upon the inculcation of the legal subject but also upon the relationship between modernism postmodernism and how such concepts might evolve in the construction of community ethics The creation and role of the legal subject is just one aspect of jurisprudential enquiry now attracting much attention How do moral values act upon the subject How do moral systems impinge upon the subject jurist and judged throughout the 20th century when religious values are called into question when existential doubt prevails To what extent do issues of gender and identity inform these questions Many sources can provide insights into these issues this book intends to concentrate upon fiction as just such a resource However it is not just another law and literature compilation Spanning the last century each chapter will attempt to fulfil four objectives to identify key texts in relation to a given period to look for linked legal and philosophical developments from that period to establish fresh links from these sources regarding concrete doctrinal or practical legal questions and finally draw a more general inference about the legal subject and the frequently less evident feminine citizen subject Central to this approach will be the consideration of contemporary case law and legal materials as social documents of the relationship between law and the wider community

Death, Dying and the Ending of Life, Volumes I and II Leslie P. Francis, 2019-01-15 The two volumes of Death Dying and the Ending of Life present the core of recent philosophical work on end of life issues Volume I examines issues in death and consent the nature of death brain death and the uses of the dead and decision making at the end of life including the use of advance directives and decision making about the continuation discontinuation or futility of treatment for competent and incompetent patients and children Volume II on justice and hastening death examines whether there is a difference between killing and letting die issues about physician assisted suicide and euthanasia and questions about distributive justice and decisions about life and death

An Eye for an Eye? Stephen Nathanson, 2001-10-16 The death penalty issue has become the epitome of the unresolvable issue the question which people answer on the basis of gut reactions rather than logical arguments In the second edition of An Eye for an Eye Stephen Nathanson evaluates arguments for and against the death penalty and ultimately defends an abolitionist position to the controversial practice including arguments that show how and why the death penalty is inconsistent with respect for life and a commitment to justice A timely new postscript and an updated bibliography accompany the volume

Justice and the Slaughter Bench Alan Norrie, 2016-09-19 In this follow up to Law and the Beautiful Soul Alan Norrie addresses the split between legal and ethical judgment Shaped by history law's formalism both eschews and requires ethics The first essays consider legal form in its practical aspect and the ethical problems encountered law's architectonic The later essays look at the complex underlying relation between law and ethics law's constellation In Hegel's philosophy legal and ethical judgment are brought together in a rational totality Here the synthesis remains unachieved the dialectic systematically broken These essays cover such issues as criminal law's general part homicide reform self defence euthanasia and war guilt They interrogate legal problems consider law's method and its place in the social whole The analysis of law's historicity its formalism and its relation to ethics contributes importantly to central questions in law legal theory and criminal justice

The Maltreatment of Children S.M. Smith, 2012-12-06 The maltreatment of children is an issue that has always been with us and civilized societies provide a range of services both social and medical to care for the children and families afflicted In recent years greater attention has been drawn to the medical aspects by competent authorities in the fields of forensic medicine forensic psychiatry epidemiological psychiatry child psychiatry and family psychiatry as well as the social aspects by those child welfare and child care agencies who have the difficult and distasteful task of removing children with the help of the courts from parents who can abuse them and are not able to care for them adequately A multitude of social agencies whose range of activities involve both the care and where possible the social betterment of afflicted families are now involved Not least in importance is an increase in our global knowledge to help in the prevention or better treatment of these problems This means more information on familial and genetic factors in human central nervous system development in its broadest sense This would include how the central nervous system originates mediates and controls the build up speed of development and impulsive release mastery and direction of aggressive drives and impulses Very little is so far known about these factors

Attempts Gideon Yaffe,2012-11-29 Gideon Yaffe presents a ground breaking work which demonstrates the importance of philosophy of action for the law Many people are serving sentences not for completing crimes but for trying to So the law governing attempted crimes is of practical as well as theoretical importance Questions arising in the adjudication of attempts intersect with questions in the philosophy of action such as what intention a person must have if any and what a person must do if anything to be trying to act Yaffe offers solutions to the difficult problems courts face in the adjudication of attempted crimes He argues that the problems courts face admit of principled solution through reflection either on what it is to try to do something or on what evidence is required for someone to be shown to have tried to do something or on what sentence for an attempt is fair given the close relation between attempts and completions The book argues that to try to do something is to be committed by one s intention to each of the components of success and to be guided by those commitments Recognizing the implications of this simple and plausible position helps us to identify principled grounds on which the courts ought to distinguish between defendants charged with attempted crimes Law, Immunization and the Right to Die Jennifer Hardes,2016-03-10 Law Immunization and the Right to Die focuses on the urgent matter of legal appeals and judicial decisions on assisted death Drawing on key cases from the United Kingdom and Canada the book focuses on the problematic paternalism of legal decisions that currently deny assisted dying and questions why the law fails to recognize what many describe as compassionate motives for assisted death. When cases are analyzed as discourses that are part of a larger socio-political logic of governance, judicial decisions, it is argued here, reveal themselves as relying on the construction of neoliberal fictions. Fictions that are here elucidated with reference to Michel Foucault's theoretical insights on pastoral power and Roberto Esposito's philosophical thesis on immunization. Challenging the socio-political logic of neoliberalism, the issue of assisted dying goes beyond the predominant legal concern with protecting or immunizing individuals from one another in favor of minimal interference. This book calls for a new kind of politics, one that might affirm people and their finitude both more collectively and more compassionately.
