Hobhouse, 2015-07-06 Excerpt from The Metaphysical Theory of the State A Criticism Presently three white specks could be seen dimly through the light haze overhead and we watched their course from the field The raid was soon over The three specks drifted away towards the east the gunfire died down the whining faded away and below the hill the great city picked up its dead The familiar sounds resumed their sway the small birds chirruped from the shrubs and the distant murmur of the traffic told of a world going steadily on its accustomed course As I went back to my Hegel my first mood was one of self satire Was this a time for theorizing or destroying theories when the world was tumbling about our ears My second thoughts ran otherwise To each man the tools and weapons that he can best use In the bombing of London I had just witnessed the visible and tangible outcome of a false and wicked doctrine the foundations of which lay as I believe in the book before me To combat this doctrine effectively is to take such part in the fight as the physical disabilities of middle age allow Hegel himself carried the proof sheets of his first work to the printer through streets crowded with fugitives from the field of Jena With that work began the most penetrating and subtle of all the intellectual influences which have sapped the rational humanitarianism of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and in the Hegelian theory of the god state all that I had witnessed lay implicit You may meet his Gothas in mid air and may the full power of a just cause be with you I must be content with more pedestrian methods But to make the world a safe place for democracy the weapons of the spirit are as necessary as those of the flesh About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works METAPHYSICAL THEORY OF THE STATE L. Pluralism and the Personality of the State David Runciman,1997-06-05 Set against the broad context of philosophical arguments about group and state personality Pluralism and the Personality of the State tells for the first time the history of political pluralism The pluralists believed that the state was simply one group among many and could not therefore be sovereign They also believed that groups like individuals might have personalities of their own The book examines the philosophical background to political pluralist ideas with particular reference to the work of Thomas Hobbes and the German Otto von Gierke It also traces the development of pluralist thought before during and after the First World War Part Three returns to Hobbes in order to see what conclusions can be drawn about the nature of his Leviathan and the nature of the state as it exists today

T.H. Green's Theory of Positive Freedom Ben Wempe, 2017-01-19 In this new and entirely revised edition of his study of Green s theory of positive freedom Ben Wempe argues that the far reaching and beneficial influence of Green s political doctrine on public policy as well as in the field of political theory was founded on a misinterpretation of his philosophical stand since the metaphysical basis on which Green argued for his political position was largely neglected The book discusses Green s philosophical development and examines an important hitherto underrated influence that went into the formation of his philosophical opinions It then considers Green s metaphysics and describes how some omissions from the concise version of his metaphysical doctrine as it is found in his published works may be remedied by reference to Green s unpublished material
