The Metaphysics Of Darkness A Study In The Unity And Development Of Conrads Fiction:

The Metaphysics of Darkness Royal Roussel,1989 The Metaphysics of Darkness Roy Roussel,1971 The Explorer in English Fiction Peter Knox-Shaw,1986-12-03 Conrad, Autobiographical Remembering, and the Making of Narrative Identity Xiaoling Yao,2023-11-24 Drawing on recent studies on life writing memory the narrative turn and psychology Conrad Autobiographical Remembering and the Making of Narrative Identity is the first major work that extensively explores the dynamic interplay between Conrad s autobiographical remembering and storytelling in relation to his identity construction within a historical and cultural context This unique perspective makes the book particularly attractive for students teachers and researchers of Conrad Contrary to the prevalent achievement and decline paradigm that implies a decline in quality of Conrad s works in his later period this volume contends that Conrad s later works continue to engage with the complex questions of memory identity and culture demonstrating a sustained commitment to exploring the intricacies of the human experiences Essential reading for Conrad enthusiasts but also for those who seek to explore how memory studies in literature intersect with psychology philosophy and cultural studies Conrad in the Nineteenth Century Ian Watt,2023-04-28 Nothing short of a masterpiece One of the great critical works produced since the 1950s New York Times This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1980 Nothing short of a masterpiece One of the great critical works produced since the 1950s New York Times This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek Joseph Conrad and the Swan Song of Romance Katherine Isobel Baxter,2018-02-06 In the first critical study wholly devoted to Joseph Conrad s use of techniques associated with the literary tradition of romance the author argues that Conrad s engagement with the genre invigorated his work throughout his career Exploring the ways in which Conrad borrows from alludes to and subverts the tropes of romance the author suggests that Conrad s ambivalent relationship with popular forms like the adventure novel is revealed in the way he uses romance conventions to disrupt narrative expectations and make visible ethical problems with Europe s colonial project The author examines not only familiar novels like Lord Jim but also less studied works such as Romance and The Rover using Robert Miles s model of the philosophical romance to show that for Conrad romance is also philosophically engaged with issues of ideology Her study enables a new appreciation of the ways in which Conrad continued to experiment even in his later fiction and of the ethical import of that aesthetic experimentation Conrad and Gide Russell West-Pavlov,2023-04-17 This study examines the relations between the work of the Polish English novelist Joseph Conrad and the French Nobel Prize winner Andr Gide Gide s translation of Conrad s Typhoon is read as a work belonging paradoxically to the oeuvres of both writers where their respective preoccupations meet with illuminating results Focusing also on other major works by Conrad and Gide the study suggests that the intertextual and personal interaction between these two masters of 20th Century fiction was governed by processes of identification and projection conflict between master and disciple and a consequent resistant reading of texts and confrontation with linguistic and cultural heterogeneity Issues of translation theory psychoanalysis and intertextuality are brought together to offer a glimpse of a possible dialogue between literature and ethics This study will be of interest to students and researchers in English French and Comparative Literature

Joseph Conrad's Critical Reception John G. Peters, 2013-04-29 This book provides a comprehensive up to date history of the commentary written about the life and works of Joseph Conrad

Conrad's Narrative Voice Werner Senn, 2017-01-09 Werner Senn's Conrad's Narrative Voice draws on the methodology of linguistic stylistics and the analysis of narrative discourse to discuss Joseph Conrad's perception of the role and the limitations of language Tracing recurrent linguistic patterns allows Senn to demonstrate that Conrad's view of the radical indeterminacy of the world is conveyed on the most basic levels of the author's often criticised verbal style but permeates his work at all levels of the narrative Detailed stylistic analysis also reveals the importance to Conrad of the spoken word of oral communication Senn argues that the narrators compulsive efforts to make their readers see and understand reflect Conrad's ethics of human solidarity in a world he depicts as hostile enigmatic and often senseless

Joseph Conrad and the Imperial Romance L. Dryden, 1999-11-24 Linda Dryden places Almayer's Folly An Outcast of the Islands Karain and Lord Jim in the context of the nineteenth century imperial romance Through the thwarted dreams and aspirations of his central characters she argues that Conrad exposes the empty promises of such fiction and challenges assumptions about the superiority of European imperialists and the imperial venture itself Using illustrations from and references to many well known novels of Empire Dryden demonstrates how Conrad's Malay fiction alludes to the conventions and stereotypes of popular imperial fiction

Modernism, Metaphysics, and Sexuality Debrah Raschke, 2006-08 Without question modernist texts have been haunted by what can be known or more aptly what cannot be known This position is foundational to one of the pivotal readings of modernism Simultaneously economic legal and political shifts that occurred during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries produced real material changes pertaining to the status of women Thus as many others have adeptly argued modernism is also a crisis in gender Modernism Metaphysics and Sexuality keenly suggests that these narratives the thinking of what constitutes truth and the rethinking of gender are intertwined Interpreting Conrad's Heart of Darkness and Victory Forster's A Passage to India and Maurice Lawrence's Women in Love and Woolf's A Room of One's Own and To the Lighthouse through Luce Irigaray's rereading of western metaphysics Raschke suggests that where there is a crisis in knowing there is also a crisis in gender

Routledge Library Editions: Joseph Conrad Various, 2021-09-30 Joseph Conrad 1857-1924 is widely considered one of the great modern writers in English literature This 21 volume set contains titles originally published between 1976 and 1990 as well as a biography from 1957

written by one of his closest friends The first 18 books are a set of concordances and indexes to Conrad's printed works which were part of a project directed by Todd K Bender at the University of Wisconsin Madison USA and are among the first attempts to use the power of computers to enhance our reading environment and assist in lexicography scholarly editing and literary analysis The set also contains a meticulously compiled bibliography of writings on Joseph Conrad as well as an original and powerful analysis of his major work

The Challenge of Bewilderment Paul B. Armstrong, 2018-03-15 The Challenge of Bewilderment treats the epistemology of representation in major works by Henry James Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford attempting to explain how the novel turned away from its traditional concern with realistic representation and toward self-consciousness about the relation between knowing and narration Paul B Armstrong here addresses the pivotal thematic experience of bewilderment an experience that challenges the reader's very sense of reality and that shows it to have no more certainty or stability than an interpretative construct Through readings of The Sacred Fount and The Ambassadors by James Lord Jim and Nostromo by Conrad and The Good Soldier and Parade's End by Ford Armstrong examines how each writer dramatizes his understanding of the act of knowing Armstrong demonstrates how the novelists' attitudes toward the process of knowing inform experiments with representation through which they thematize the relation between the understanding of a fictional world and everyday habits of perception Finally he considers how these experiments with the strategies of narration produce a heightened awareness of the process of interpretation

Conrad and Impressionism John G. Peters, 2001-03-15 John Peters investigates the impact of Impressionism on Conrad and links this to his literary techniques as well as his philosophical and political views He investigates the sources and implications of Conrad's impressionism in order to argue for a consistent link between his literary technique philosophical presuppositions and socio-political views

Scientific Theology: Theory Alister E. McGrath, 2007-01-23 The third volume of an extended and systematic exploration of the relation between Christian theology and the natural sciences focussing on the origins and place of theory in Christian theology

Testimony on Trial Brian Artese, 2011-12-01 Who is a more authoritative source of information the person who experiences it firsthand or a more impartial authority In the late nineteenth century testimony became a common feature of literary works both fact and fiction But with the rise of new journalism the power of testimony could be undermined by anonymous institutional voices a Victorian subversion which continues to this day Testimony on Trial examines the conflicts over testimony through the eyes of two of its major combatants Joseph Conrad and Henry James Brian Artese finds an overlooked yet direct inspiration for Heart of Darkness in the anti-testimonial scheming of Henry Morton Stanley and the New York Herald Through new readings of works including Lord Jim and The Portrait of a Lady Artese demonstrates how the cultural conditions that worked against testimony fed into a nascent conflict about the meaning of modernism itself

Conrad's Shadow Nidesh Lawtoo, 2016-09-01 Western thought has often dismissed shadows as fictional but what if fictions reveal original truths Drawing on an anti-Platonic tradition in critical theory Lawtoo adopts ethical anthropological and philosophical lenses to offer new readings of Joseph Conrad's novels and the postcolonial and cinematic works that respond to his oeuvre. He argues that Conrad's fascination with doubles urges readers to reflect on the two sides of mimesis: one side is dark and pathological and involves the escalation of violence, contagious epidemics, and catastrophic storms; the other side is luminous and therapeutic and promotes communal survival, postcolonial reconciliation, and plastic adaptations to changing environments. Once joined, the two sides reveal Conrad as an author whose Janus-faced fictions are powerfully relevant to our contemporary world of global violence and environmental crisis. A Historical Guide to Joseph Conrad John Peters, 2010. Joseph Conrad achieved worldwide literary renown in his third language. Despite not having learned English until his twenties, Conrad succeeded in breaking new ground with his portrayal of anti-heroes, distinctive narrative style becoming a major influence on 20th-century English language fiction. Where Nature Ends Susan E. Lorsch, 1983. This critical study argues that certain writers generally separated into Victorian and early modern categories actually share a drive to capture landscape in language and that this drive reflects a common view of reality and the self. Joseph Conrad Bruce Teets, 2020-04-30. Originally published in 1990, this is a comprehensive and annotated bibliography of the writings on Joseph Conrad and his works. Covering the years from 1895 to 1975, it also includes indexes of authors, secondary works, periodicals, and newspapers in foreign languages and primary titles. Part of a series of annotated bibliographies on English Literature in Transition, 1880-1920, this will be a valuable resource for students of literature.
