Normative Power Europe Meets Israel Sharon Pardo, 2015-08-21. The book draws on some of the scholarship in perception studies and Normative Power Europe theory. The study of perceptions although dating back to the mid 1970s is gaining renewed currency in recent years both in international relations in general and in European Union studies in particular. And yet despite the significance of external perceptions of the European Union there is still a lack of theoretical forays into this area as well as an absence of empirical investigations of actual external role conceptions. These lacunae in scholarly work are significant since how the European Union is perceived outside its borders and what factors shape these perceptions are crucial for deepening the theory of Normative Power Europe. The book analyzes Israeli perceptions towards Normative Power Europe the European Union and NATO through five themes that the book argues underscore different dimensions of key Israeli conceptions of Normative Power Europe and NATO. The book seeks to contribute to the existing research on the European Union's role as a normative power the Union's external representations and on Israeli European Union relations more broadly. Turkey,

Islamists and Democracy Yildiz Atasoy, 2005-07-29 Trailblazing study that radically re-examines political Islam Political Islam in Turkey has been headline news following the Istanbul bombings Much needed study of the economic dimensions of political Islam Turkey Islamists and Democracy is the story of Islam's engagement with the reorganization of the global economy Yildiz Atasoy examines the development of political Islam in Turkey within the context of the changing balance of domestic and international forces in the world economy and shows how it has taken on a highly sophisticated cosmopolitan edge By examining the incorporation of Islam into the existing relations of the Turkish state from the late Ottoman Empire to the present day the author demonstrates how political Islam interacts with the global restructuring of classes states and political actors Atasoy challenges the view of Islamist politics as an anti-Modern anti-Western force that is fundamentally opposed to the global economy and instead argues that political Islam is cosmopolitan and embedded in processes which incorporate Western modernity into local cultural practices
