Liehm, 2016-04-06 First published in 1975 this book examines the career of one of the leading post war Czech filmmakers Milo Forman through his own testimony After recollecting his childhood and early artistic ventures Forman gives accounts of the making of his major films interspersed with contemporaneous reviews by the author and in the final chapter he sums up his lessons along the way A section entitled Stories behind the Stories fills in details on the events and people mentioned in Forman's narrative The author's commentary provides valuable insights not only into the aesthetics of filmmaking but also the social and political environment in contemporary Czechoslovakia      The Milos Forman Stories Antonin J. Liehm, Autobiography of Milos Forman Milos Forman, 1999-12-01      Film Style and Story Lennard Højbjerg, Peter Schepelern, 2003 Style and story are two of the most debated concepts in film studies today Taking a cognitive perspective the anthology Film Style and Story focuses explicitly on the stylistic portrayal of human behavior in film ranging from studies of specific visual patterns to sound montages Contributions to this volume all share two characteristics they explore the ways in which styles and stories interact and they are inspired by the work of Torben Grodal professor of Film and Media Studies University of Copenhagen      Postcards from Absurdistan Derek Sayer, 2022-11-01 A sweeping history of a twentieth century Prague torn between fascism communism and democracy with lessons for a world again threatened by dictatorship Postcards from Absurdistan is a cultural history of Prague from 1938 when the Nazis destroyed Czechoslovakia's artistically vibrant liberal democracy to 1989 when the country's socialist regime collapsed after more than four decades of communist party rule Derek Sayer shows that Prague's twentieth century far from being a story of inexorable progress toward some end of history whether fascist communist or democratic was a tragicomedy of recurring nightmares played out in a land Czech dissidents dubbed Absurdistan Situated in the eye of the storms that shaped the modern world Prague holds up an unsettling mirror to the absurdities and dangers of our own times In a brilliant narrative Sayer weaves a vivid montage of the lives of individual Praguers poets and politicians architects and athletes journalists and filmmakers artists musicians and comedians caught up in the crosscurrents of the turbulent half century following the Nazi invasion This is the territory of the ideologist the collaborator the informer the apparatchik the dissident the outsider the torturer and the refugee not to mention the innocent bystander who is always looking the other way and Vclav Havel's greengrocer whose knowing complicity allows the show to go on Over and over Prague exposes modernity's dreamworlds of progress as confections of kitsch In a time when democracy is once again under global assault Postcards from Absurdistan is an unforgettable portrait of a city that illuminates the predicaments of the modern world      Politics, Art and Commitment in the East European Cinema D.W.
