and scholars of nineteenth century Victorian history and literature The Victorians and the Visual Imagination Kate Flint, 2000-08-28 The Victorians and the Visual Imagination is an exciting and innovative exploration of the Victorians attitudes towards sight Tantalized by physiologists who proved the unreliability of the eye intrigued by the role of subjectivity within vision and provoked by new technologies of spectatorship the Victorians were also imaginatively stirred by the sense of a world which lay just out of human sight This interdisciplinary study draws on writers as diverse as George Eliot Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Rudyard Kipling as well as Pre Raphaelite and realist painters including Millais Burne Jones William Powell Frith and Whistler and a host of Victorian scientists cultural commentators and art critics Its topics include blindness the location of memory hallucination dust and the importance of the horizon a dazzling eclectic range of subjects linked together by the operations of the eye and brain Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual s relationship with light rather than the investigation of light s essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light s character No individual experience of light being truer than any other The Arnoldian , 1989 Labour and the Poor in England and Wales, 1849-1851: Lancashire, Cheshire, Yorkshire Jules Ginswick, 1983 The letters to The Morning chronicle from the correspondents in the manufacturing and mining districts the towns of Liverpool and Birmingham and the rural districts Writing the Pre-Raphaelites Tim Barringer, 2017-07-05 This vibrant collection of essays claims that a complex network of texts by critics biographers and diarists established the credibility and influence of the Pre Raphaelite movement Throughout the twentieth century Modernist taste failed to acknowledge the achievement of oppositional groupings such as the Pre Raphaelites The essays collected here however reveal that the British group anticipated later avant gardes by using the written word to configure for itself a radical artistic identity Public and critics alike were scandalized by the radicalism of Pre Raphaelite painting its unflinching portrayal of historical figures and of contemporary life and its irreverent attitude to artistic convention Pre Raphaelitism s innovations were not confined to style new forms of artistic identity and behaviour were explored As the contributors interrogate the texts through which Pre Raphaelitism was constructed they demonstrate that the movement s wide influence as a cultural phenomenon derived from the interplay between exhibited works and critical discourse Applying a range of sophisticated methodologies from the fields of literary studies art history and cultural studies these interdisciplinary essays uncover the neglected role of texts in the success of the Pre Raphaelite rebellion and argue in favor of a new centrality for this movement in the history of nineteenth century European culture Narrating Modernity: The British Problem Picture, 1895-1914 Pamela M.
