Doing Research in Business and Management Dan Remenyi, D. Remenyi, 1998-09-14 Doing Research in Business and Management has been written to help students obtain a thorough understanding of the main methodological issues and options that are available to them as business and management researchers undertaking a masters or doctoral degree Doing Research in Business and Management takes the reader through all of the important issues that need to be understood if a competent piece of research is to be produced at the masters or doctoral level in the business and management studies The authors explain the interrelationship between the theoretical and empirical research as well as the differences between positivism and phenomenology Not only do they put these concepts in context for the business and management student but they go on to discuss how these different approaches are used in practice Furthermore the authors discuss the implications of quantitative and qualitative approaches to research The book offers high level advice on different numerical techniques available to researchers as well as different software packages that may be used for analyzing qualitative data The book also discusses the use of the Internet to support research in masters and doctoral programs

The Foreign Service Personnel System Patrick E. Linehan, 2019-08-16 First published in 1976 This study is perhaps the most comprehensive objective and accurate analysis to date of the State Department's Foreign Service personnel system Largely based on in depth interviews of 330 Foreign Service officers ranging in rank from career minister to newly appointed officer and extensively documented the book examines the needs of the Foreign Service organization and its personnel and presents an analysis of the policies and procedures according to which it operates Areas covered include recruitment training assignments performance evaluation promotions and attrition Also discussed in detail is the structure and functioning of the informal system of rules and regulations developed by Foreign Service officers individuals use this system which is outside of the prescribed channels in attempting to influence their career development Despite its specialized orientation the study utilizes a methodology that can be applied to any large organization The Effective Corrections Manager Richard L. Phillips, Charles R. McConnell, 1996

Carlos Slim Diego Osorno, 2019-09-24 The biography of Carlos Slim one of the richest people of all time is not just the tale of the first man from a developing country to ever reach the top of the Forbes list of billionaires It is the story of a character who represents the neoliberal mentality of our times who mistrusts politicians believes that the market is the most efficient mechanism for everything even to combat corruption and sees philanthropy as a social investment with businesses as the exclusive form of collective wealth In this new book produced through years of thorough investigation Osorno examines this symbol of twenty first century capitalism and of Mexico Similar surreal dimensions lead Osorno to openly ask whether a man as rich as him can also be a good person ADMINISTRATIVE
