The Lecturer's Tale James Hynes, 2007-04-01 The author of Publish and Perish returns with a Faustian tale of the horrors of academe Nelson Humbolt is a visiting adjunct English lecturer at prestigious Midwest University until he is unceremoniously fired one autumn morning Minutes after the axe falls his right index finger is severed in a freak accident Doctors manage to reattach the finger but when the bandages come off Nelson realizes that he has acquired a strange power he can force his will onto others with a touch of his finger And so he obtains an extension on the lease of his university owned townhouse and picks up two sections of freshman composition saving his career from utter ruin But soon these victories seem inconsequential and Nelson s finger burns for even greater glory Now the Midas of academia wonders if he can attain what every struggling assistant professor and visiting lecturer covets tenure A pitch perfect blend of satire and horror The Lecturer s Tale paints a gruesomely clever portrait of life in academia

Basket Weavers for the California Curio Trade Marvin Cohodas, 2019-12-03 The peoples of northwestern California s

Lower Klamath River area have long been known for their fine basketry. Two early twentieth century weavers of that region, Elizabeth Hickox and her daughter Louise, created especially distinctive baskets that are celebrated today for their elaboration of technique, form, and surface designs. Marvin Cohodas now explores the various forces that influenced Elizabeth Hickox, analyzing her relationship with the curio trade and specifically with dealer Grace Nicholson to show how those associations affected the development and marketing of baskets. He explains the techniques and patterns that Hickox created to meet the challenge of weaving design into changing three-dimensional forms. In addition to explicating the Hickoxes' basketry, Cohodas interprets its uniqueness as a form of intersocietal art, showing how Elizabeth first designed her distinctive trinket basket to convey a particular view of the curio trade and its effect on status within her community. Through its close examination of these superb practitioners of basketry, Basket Weavers for the California Curio Trade addresses many of today's most pressing questions in Native American art studies concerning individuality, patronage, and issues of authenticity. Graced with historic photographs and full-color plates, it reveals the challenges faced by early twentieth-century Native weavers. Published with the assistance of The Southwest Museum, Los Angeles.

The Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle, 1853 The Baptist Magazine, 1843 The Missionary Herald, 1858 International Dictionary of Library Histories David H. Stam, 2001-11-01. Following the format of Fitzroy Dearborn's highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places and International Dictionary of University Histories, the International Dictionary of Library Histories provides basic information for each institution, location, and holdings, followed by an extensive 1,000- to 5,000-word essay on its history, as well as a Further Reading list. In addition, the dictionary includes introductory articles on the history of various types of libraries and a library history in various regions of the world. The dictionary profiles more than 200 institutions from around the world, including the world's most important research libraries and other libraries with globally or regionally notable collections, innovative traditions, and significant and interesting histories. The essays take advantage of the growing scholarship of library history to provide insightful overviews of each institution, including not only the traditional values of these libraries but their innovations as well, such as developments in automated systems and electronic delivery. The profiles will emphasize the unique materials of research in these institutions: archives, manuscripts, personal and institutional papers. The introductory articles on types of libraries include topics ranging from theological libraries to prison libraries, from the ancient to the digital. An international team of more than 200 leading scholars in the field have contributed essays to the project.
