The Primadonna

F. Marion Crawford

The Primadonna:

The Primadonna Francis Marion Crawford, 1908 Cordova's face was nothing but a mask of powder in which her handsome brown eyes would have looked like two holes if she had not kept them half shut under the heavily whitened lids her hands were chalked too and they were like plaster casts of hands cleverly jointed at the wrists

Fair Margaret and The Primadonna Francis Marion Crawford, Sir Henry Rider Haggard, 1905-01-01 I am a realist said Mr Edmund Lushington as if that explained everything We could hardly expect to agree he added It sounded very much as if he had said As you are not a realist my poor young lady I can of course hardly expect you to know anything Margaret Donne looked at him quietly and smiled She was not very sensitive to other people's opinions few idealists are for they generally think more of their ideas than of themselves Mr Lushington had said that he could not agree with her that was all and she was quite indifferent She had known that he would not share her opinion when the discussion had begun for he never did and she was glad of it She also knew that her smile irritated him for he did not resemble her in the very least He was slightly aggressive as shy persons often are and yet like a good many men who profess realism brutal frankness and a sweeping disbelief of everything not scientifically true Mr Lushington was almost morbidly sensitive to the opinion of others Criticism hurt him indifference wounded him to the quick ridicule made him writhe He was a fair man with a healthy skin and his eyes were blue but they had a particularly disagreeable trick of looking at one suddenly for an instant with a little pinching of the lids and a slight glitter turning away again in a displeased way as if he had expected to be insulted and was sure that the speaker was slighting him at the very least He often blushed when he said something sharp He wished he were dark because dark men could say biting things without blushing and pale because he felt that it was not interesting to be pink and white His hair too was smoother and softer than he could have wished it He had tried experiments with his beard and moustache and had finally made up his mind to let both grow but he still looked hopelessly neat When he pushed his hair back from his forehead with a devastating gesture it simply became untidy as if he had forgotten to brush it At last he had accepted his fate and he resigned himself to what he considered his physical disadvantages but no one would ever know how he had studied the photographs of the big men in the front of things trying to detect in them some single feature to which his own bore a faint resemblance Hitherto he had failed Yet he was somebody and perhaps it means more to be somebody nowadays in the howling fight for place and acknowledgment than it meant in the latter part of the nineteenth century How easy life was in the early eighties compared with this how mild were the ways of nations how primitive pure and upright the dealings of financiers in that day of pristine virtue and pastoral simplicity It was all very well to be an idealist then Mr Lushington sometimes said to Margaret the world was young then there was time for everything then there was room for everybody then even the seasons were different then At least all old people say so and it can hardly be supposed that all persons over fifty years of age belong to a secret and powerful association of liars organised and banded together to deceive the young Mr

Lushington was somebody even at the beginning of this truthful little tale and that was some time ago and if anything about him could have really irritated Margaret Donne it was that she could not understand the reason of his undeniable importance The people who succeed in life and in the arts and professions are not always the pleasantest people nor even the nicest Miss Donne had found this out before she was twenty and she was two years older now She had learned a good many other things more or less connected with human nature and more or less useful to a young woman in her position The Prima Donna Francis Marion Crawford,1915 The Alphabet of Inner Demons and How to Tame Them (Full Color Version) Jenifer Zurick,2010 The Primadonna F. Civil Aeronautics Board,1962 Vincenzo Bellini on Stage and Screen, 1935-2020 Emilio Sala,Graziella Seminara,Emanuele Senici,2024-10-31 Vincenzo Bellini on Stage and Screen 1935 2020 offers nine case studies of the history of Vincenzo Bellini s operas on stage on screen and in sound video and performance art This investigation begins in 1935 the hundredth anniversary of the composer s death and the year when his first biopic was released and ends in 2020 when performance artist Marina Abramovic s opera project 7 Deaths of Maria Callas whose final scene is accompanied by Bellini s famous aria Casta Diva was premiered In Part One several recent productions of La sonnambula Norma and I Puritani are discussed from different perspectives but the common focus is on the possible meanings of these works for contemporary spectators Part Two centered on cinema includes chapters on biopics of Bellini that make extensive use of his music as well as on the presence of this music in soundtracks of films from the last half century Part Three turns to other media or mixtures of stage and screen and focuses on Bellini in sound and video art of the last few decades on YouTube and its fandom and on 7 Deaths of Maria Callas The volume offers an expansive view of the many ways in which Bellini s operas have been visualized and conceptualized over the past century and of what they may have meant and may still mean for twentieth and twenty first century culture My VENICE Barbara Athanassiadis,2014-08-12 ABOUT THE BOOK MY VENICE An intimate look at the Myth History and the magic of its Arts I liked the way the city had attracted my attention But in order to discover it I asked it to stop hiding behind its masks I wanted it real To allow me to discover its secrets understand its problems and hold a direct conversation with it And it was promised to me and all disguises were thrown off as our conversation began A trip through time myth History the magic of Art and life is what Barbara Athanassiadis manages to achieve with the discerning eye of an experienced traveller It is the same eye that captured reflections of Italy in her earlier narratives the books A Year in Tuscany and Feeling Rome My Venice is the final book left to complete her unique literary trilogy that approaches time place and people both in the past and in the present Without directing our steps the author transports us through the canals the narrow streets and the squares of Venice and she focuses our attention on works of Nature and Art drawing on legends and historical omissions The Winged Lion leisurely embraces the shoulders of our romantic heroine and the Seagull's Flight even reaches the Empress Sissy in Venice The Tiny Murano Spheres roll down and stop before The Fork of the Byzantine Princess Torcello flirts with the Venetian Women in the Harem The eBook is illustrated with colourful photos Watch the YouTube book trailer video My VENICE https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLrbC_aJ_0WKv8tN0RuB2YvMtqV_lg7N9X BOOK REVIEWS

Barbara must have been very much in love with Venice because I know that for many years she has desired to write this book She visited the city many times in the fall and stayed for long periods in order to internalize all that she describes expertly afterwards providing the reader with her interesting reflections on the streets the innumerable bridges and the countless churches but also a wonderful lesson in History and an eye catching look at its mysterious and sensual Art We all know what Venice is for art lovers Reading her book it is obvious that she had an exclusive dialogue with the Serenissima in order for its magic to penetrate inside her and then to be able to narrate her intimate relationship within this dreamy city I particularly liked the point when she asked Venice not to hide behind its masks but to throw aside its touristic veils and be revealed to her without any secrets Lydia Mastronikolis President of the Friends of the Cultural Association Hellenic World Attentive to the Venetian glances of Barbara Athanassiadis book I realized an emotional escalation as the author is quite literal with her title MY VENICE This is indeed her own Venice with the meaning not so much of her subjective glance or the focus on what selectively charms her but in the particular way she sees things looking towards the view of many sights and not really seeing them She wanders amongst her favorite places and drags my gaze to colors and sensations without guiding it Just as charmingly she approximates aspects of everyday life in her extra literary life calmly with a nonchalance and always with a smile Just as spontaneously and naturally she unfolds the myth in which she dresses her wanderings Motives thoughts quests reactions of her heroes occur nearly as obviously By reading her book we follow the confessional narration of a friend where the intimacy of her voice is entrusted to our ears Helen Kritika Book Critic Through the narration of Barbara Athanassiadis I discovered in fact that Venice is inside her hence the title MY VENICE While our friendship has bonded us for years I was truly touched by her book It's as if she has taken me by the hand and together we stroll this fairytale town either when the fog envelops it or when the pink color of its sunset embraces it Barbara's spontaneous and mature descriptions have spurred my curiosity to such an extent that I feel a strong desire to actually go to Venice and see the places that have inspired her I consider myself lucky when I fall upon such a book The narrative makes me travel and look at places I have heard about countless times in a fresh and novel way all while I sit comfortably in my armchair Zoe Kyriakou Radio Producer Easy 97.2 Athens Greece
