The Principle Of Duty An Essay On The Foundations Of The Civic Order:

The Principle of Duty David Selbourne, 1997      Principle of Duty David Selbourne, 2001-01-26 The First American edition of a British best seller In The Principle of Duty      Same Sex Intimacies Catherine Donovan, Brian Heaphy, Jeffrey Weeks, 2003-09-02 Our families are increasingly a matter of choice and the choices are widening all the time This is particularly true of the non heterosexual world where the last ten years have seen a popular acceptance of same sex partnerships and to a lesser extent of same sex parenting Based on extensive interviews with people in a variety of non traditional relationships this fascinating new book argues that these developments in the non heterosexual world are closely linked to wider changes in the meaning of family in society at large and that each can cast light on the other Same Sex Intimacies gives vivid accounts of the different ways non heterosexual people have been able to create meaningful intimate relationships for themselves and highlights the role of individual agency and collective endeavour in forging these roles as friends partners parents and as members of communities This topical book will provide compelling reading for students of the family sexuality and lesbian and gay studies      Handbook of Citizenship Studies Engin F Isin, Bryan S Turner, 2002-08-16 The contributions of Woodiwiss Lister and Sassen are outstanding but not unrepresentative of the many merits of this excellent collection The British Journal of Sociology From women s rights civil rights and sexual rights for gays and lesbians to disability rights and language rights we have experienced in the past few decades a major trend in Western nation states towards new claims for inclusion This trend has echoed around the world from the Zapatistas to Chechen and Kurdish nationalists social and political movements are framing their struggles in the languages of rights and recognition and hence of citizenship Citizenship has thus become an increasingly important axis in the social sciences Social scientists have been rethinking the role of political agent or subject Not only are the rights and obligations of citizens being redefined but also what it means to be a citizen has become an issue of central concern As the process of globalization produces multiple diasporas we can expect increasingly complex relationships between homeland and host societies that will make the traditional idea of national citizenship problematic As societies are forced to manage cultural difference and associated tensions and conflict there will be changes in the processes by which states allocate citizenship and a differentiation of the category of citizen This book constitutes the most authoritative and comprehensive guide to the terrain Drawing on a wealth of interdisciplinary knowledge and including some of the leading commentators of the day it is an essential guide to understanding modern citizenship About the editors Engin F Isin is Associate Professor of Social Science at York University His recent works include Being Political Genealogies of Citizenship Minnesota 2002 and with P K Wood Citizenship and Identity Sage 1999 He is the Managing Editor of Citizenship Studies Bryan S Turner is Professor of Sociology at the University of Cambridge He has written widely on the sociology of citizenship in Citizenship and Capitalism Unwin Hyman 1986 and Citizenship and Social Theory Sage 1993 He is also the author of The Body and Society Sage 1996 and Classical

Sociology Sage 1999 and has been editor of Citizenship Studies since 1997      Democracy, Citizenship and the Global City Engin F. Isin, 2013-04-15 Democracy Citizenship and the Global City focuses on the controversial neglected theme of citizenship It examines the changing role of citizens their rights obligations and responsibilities as members of nation states and the issue of accountability in a global society Using this interdisciplinary approach the book offers an innovative collection of work from Robert A Beauregard Anna Bounds Janine Brodie Richard Dagger Gerard Delanty Judith A Garber Robert J Holton Warren Magnusson Raymond Rocco Nikolas Rose Evelyn S Ruppert Saskia Sassen Bryan S Turner John Urry Gerda R Wekerle and Nira Yuval Davis      The Spirit of New Socialism and the End of Class-based Politics Robert Corfe, 2005 Changes in society over the past 50 years call for a new type of Socialism and this book presents a striking new dynamic to attract the 90 per cent majority in the industrialised economies of today      Central Asia Rein Mullerson, 2014-04-04 This is an important analysis of a key but little known region in the wider context of world politics Central Asia has huge oil and gas resources divided between five independent states Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan each with their own problems and interests The region is energy rich and being situated between Russia and China and close to Afghanistan and other potential trouble spots it has acquired immense geo strategic importance History is seen and felt everywhere Old legacies whether they go back to Genghis Khan or stem from the recent Soviet past have a profound effect on contemporary issues and political choices Concentrating on today s problems against a complex historical background the book draws on the author s extensive involvement with the region Considerable attention is paid to Central Asian Islam human rights issues in the region and Central Asia s place in the war against terrorism      A Matter of Choice Philip Hodgkiss, 2022-01-01 A Matter of Choice represents a substantive discussion of the concept of choice in human affairs taken against the backdrop of ethics and religion Drawing on a range of contributions Hodgkiss demonstrates in this study that though often not the primary issue under consideration a concern with choice has featured continually in human thought from the Hellenistic world of the Stoics to the post Kantian environment of modern philosophy Moreover he argues that the social and historical dimension of choice has been consistently underplayed and that the role of choice in modern economic and political developments is underestimated at our peril Through a critical account of the literature Hodgkiss adeptly diagnoses the insufficiency of the current conception of the choice making sovereign individual in the contemporary liberal democratic capitalist context and outlines the implications of this philosophy for the choice maker      The Jesus You Really Didn't Know Andy Angel, 2019-09-09 The problem with too much Christianity today is that we replace the person of Jesus with a doctrine of grace Living in denial of Jesus teaching on judgment and holiness too many Christians take refuge from the sayings of Jesus in doctrines of forgiveness that they hope will bolster up their sense of self worth before God Andy Angel tackles this dysfunctional spirituality head on opening up the journey of learning and love into which the living Lord Jesus invites us all Unpacking the Gospel of Matthew he encourages us to rediscover the teaching ministry of Jesus in our own lives and in doing so to recover the riches and freshness of the gospel message and to rediscover the depths of love Jesus has for each one of us      The Losing Battle With Islam David Selbourne, 2010-09-09 In this comprehensive study of the Islamic revival from 1947 to the present historian David Selbourne traces in detail the complex causes motivating the rise of Muslim fundamentalism in many countries and the West's largely uncomprehending response to it He frankly describes the hostilities cruelties and errors of judgment on both sides Writing neither from the left nor from the right Selbourne pieces together up to date information from more numerous sources than in any other work on the subject He highlights the grotesque role that some sections of the Western media have played and seeks to do justice to the Islamist cause demonstrating how many of the real issues of the Islamic revival have been evaded Selbourne argues that whether the reawakening of the Islamic and Arab worlds has taken the political form of Arab nationalism as under the leadership of Egyptian President Gamal Abdul Nasser in the 1950s or the economic form of the OPEC oil embargo in 1973 and 1974 or the religious form of the Iranian revolution of 1989 and the present al Qaeda suicide squads in all its guises it is motivated by a sense of entitlement in Muslims to determine their own destiny free of Western subordination Selbourne concludes with a warning against the illusions of the West about its superiority and ability to contain a force that is confident of its own moral superiority and certain of its ultimate triumph Addressed both to general readers and to policy makers academics and journalists The Losing Battle with Islam will stand for some time as one of the most impartial and authoritative accounts of a half century of Western conflict with Islam
