The Masks Of Drought:

The Masks of Drought William Everson, 1980 William Everson Lee Bartlett, 1988 In the annals of modern American letters William Everson holds prime place as a poet of conscience and consciousness of self his richly textured verse mapping his extraordinary inner journey as social activist Dominican brother and preeminent religious and philosophical poet In William Everson The Life of Brother Antoninus Lee Bartlett charts the outer journey drawing on the reminiscences of the poetry his friends and a wealth of archival material The Masks of Dionysos Daniel E. Anderson, 1993-01-01 The metaphysical center of Plato's work has traditionally been taken to be his Doctrine of Forms the epistemological center the Doctrine of Recollection The Symposium has been viewed as one of the clearest explanations of the first and Meno as one of the clearest explanations of the other The Masks of Dionysos challenges these traditional interpretations A Theology of Creation Thomas S. Hibbs, 2023-08-15 This book provides the first sustained philosophical treatment of Pope Francis's Laudato Si and articulates a theology of creation to recover our place within the cosmos In the encyclical Laudato Si Pope Francis discerns beneath the imminent threat of ecological catastrophe an existential affliction of the human person who is lost in the cosmos increasingly alienated from self others nature and God Pope Francis suggests that one must reimagine humanity's place in the created cosmos In this ambitious and distinctive contribution to theological aesthetics Thomas S. Hibbs provides the basis for just such a recovery working from Laudato Si to develop a philosophical and theological diagnosis of our ecological dislocation a narrative account of the sources of the crisis and a vision of the way forward Through a critical engagement with the artistic theory of Jacques Maritain Hibbs shows how certain strains of modern art both capture our alienation and anticipate visions of recovered harmony among persons nature and God In the second half of the book in an attempt to fulfill Pope Francis's plea for an aesthetic education and to apply and test Maritain's theory Hibbs examines the work of poets and painters He analyzes the work of poets Robinson Jeffers and William Everson and considers painters Georges Rouault a friend to Maritain and Makoto Fujimura whose notion of culture care overlaps in suggestive ways with Francis's notion of integral ecology Throughout this tour de force Hibbs calls for a commitment to an ecological poetics a project that responds to the crisis of our times by taking poets and painters as seriously as philosophers and theologians

William Everson Steven Herrmann, 2015-12-10 In 1991 author and Jungian psychotherapist Steven Herrmann was called by the poet shaman William Everson to collaborate on writing a book It is from that event that the subtitle of this book emerged The Shaman's Call Its aim is to instill in readers that if one follows one's calling from the shamanic archetype with the right attitude it could culminate in true cosmic awareness And it would interconnect the psyche with nature or what C G Jung called the Self Such awareness is made clear through the transfiguring power of American poet shamans who transmit what they are called by nature to convey that an experience of the Self is a life altering experience The calling can be transmitted by way of an animal power to a person through dreams transformative relationships in depth psychotherapy religious experiences art scientific endeavor or through the hearing reading or writing of shamanic poetry During the conversations with Everson emerged a vision of the way shamanism has been portrayed in American poetry from Herman Melville's Moby Dick to Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass to Emily Dickinson's The Complete Poetry to what Everson achieved in his seminal poems October Tragedy The Encounter and Black Hills and in his literature course at the University of California Santa Cruz The conversations form a link between the 80 year old poet shaman and the 35 year old Jungian author Steven Herrmann who was just beginning to find his own wings as a poet The Expanded edition commemorates William Everson's birth on September 10 1912 Herrmann co organized three Centennial events to celebrate Everson's work in the fall of 2012 Part II contains Seven Meditations William Everson's Basic Teachings on Vocation a final conversation with Everson on vocatypes and Herrmann's Centennial essays and poems
