Lim,2005 This is a groundbreaking study of Ben Okri s and K S Maniam s literary problematization of home in relation to subjectivity and the nation within and beyond the context of Nigeria and Malaysia Drawing on Lacan Zizek Laclau and Mouffe and weaving through history politics philosophy and literature this book critically examines the motives and means by which peoples forced to live together in a country love and hate each other and overlook the truths about themselves their actions and beliefs It looks into why some embrace heterogeneity and open endedness while others are internally compelled to over identify passionately with their religion and race and to posit theirs as irreducibly distinct from and superior to others The Infinite Longing for Home also traces through Okri s and Maniam s writings a way out of today s political aporia a path to the re creation of a new society humbled unified by the recognition of its participation in flawed humanity New Masters of Poster Design John Foster,2008-04-30 New in Paperback In much the way that the CD replaced the album the poster has waned as a messaging vehicle The poster has now become a postcard and e mail blast leaving many to long for the lost age when posters were not only major promotional vehicles but also artwork worthy of framing Some of the world s best designers just could not stand idle while the poster fell by the wayside They turned to the poster for personal expression and as an outlet from more restrictive mediums This book showcases their breathtaking artwork which has proven that the poster can still serve as a worthy communications tool In doing so they ve brought the poster back to prominence In this book John Foster has compiled the world s finest new work at the height of this rebirth There is currently no book on the market that can claim it features a definitive poster collection
