The Mayor Of Aln:

The Mayor of Aln James Rourke, 2012-06-07 Konrad a charismatic outsider wanders an apocalyptic land known as The Province Arriving at the town of Aln he installs himself as schoolmaster and gradually subverts the community's order He succeeds in getting himself elected mayor further feeding his appetite for power Privacy is declared a sin private property is abolished and polygamy implemented The City is forced to send its army to get rid of him for good But at his show trial Konrad's mysterious manipulation produces an extraordinary outcome Set in a barren fantasy landscape The Mayor of Aln combines elements both ancient and modern A strange dark and amusing tale of moral manipulation and the cult of personality The Mayor of Aln is the first book in James Rourke's The Province Trilogy All the Year Round, 1894

Failure of l'Action Libérale Nationale Patricia Dirks, 1991-08-01 The ALN gained widespread business popular and church support by promising francophones both control of a modern Quebec economy and preservation of the traditional social order As Dirks shows however this support came from people with different and sometimes contradictory objectives causing internal tensions which weakened the ALN from the outset This weakness was compounded by poor leadership financial difficulties and the tactics of the other political parties in Quebec The Quebec Liberal and Conservative Parties worked independently to undermine the ALN and any possibility of its gaining power in Quebec Maurice Duplessis leader of the Quebec Conservative party skilfully exploited the ALN's weaknesses in the interests of his own party by the formation of the Union Nationale This coalition of the ALN and the provincial Conservatives capitalized on the popularity of the ALN to win the provincial election of 1935 but ensured that power remained in the hands of what was essentially the Quebec Conservative Party Dirks insight into the political history of Quebec is informed by a multitude of sources She conducted interviews with many of the leading political players of the time including the late Paul Gouin the original leader of the ALN She also consulted many public and private archives including Gouin's and was allowed unrestricted access to Duplessis papers for the period up to 1939 the year the ALN ceased to exist In relating the rise and fall of the ALN to the socio economic ideological and political developments which shaped Quebec during the early decades of the twentieth century Dirks reveals its long term impact on the operation and organization of political parties in Quebec and Canada A Manual of the Law Applicable to Corporations Generally Charles Theodore Boone, 1881 The Prairie West: Historical Readings R. Douglas Francis, Howard Palmer, 1992 This collection of 35 readings on Canadian prairie history includes overview interpretation and current research on topics such as the fur trade native peoples ethnic groups status of women urban and rural society the Great Depression and literature and art The Early Kings of Norway Thomas Carlyle, 1875

War in the Mountains Neil Macmaster, 2020-10-15 The role of the peasantry during the Algerian War of Independence 1954-1962 has long been neglected by historians in part because they have been viewed as a primitive mass devoid of political consciousness War in the Mountains Peasant Society and Counterinsurgency in Algeria 1918-1958 challenges this conventional understanding by tracing the ability of the peasant community to sustain an autonomous political culture through family clan and village assemblies The long established system of indirect rule by which the colonial state controlled and policed the vast mountainous interior of Algeria began to break down after the 1920s War in the Mountains explains how competing guerrilla forces and the French military sought to harness djem as as part of a hearts and minds strategy Djem as formed a pole of opposition to the patron client relations of the rural lites with clandestine urban rural networks emerging that prepared the way for armed resistance and a system of rebel governance Contrary to accepted historical analysis suggesting that rural society was massively uprooted and dislocated War in the Mountains demonstrates that the peasantry demonstrated a high level of social cohesion and resistance based on powerful family and kin networks Political

This groundbreaking investigation uncovers serious mismatches between David Galula s counterinsurgency practice in Algeria and his counterinsurgency theory the foundation of current U S counterinsurgency doctrine in Iraq and Afghanistan Given the centrality of David Galula s theory to U S Counterinsurgency COIN doctrine in Iraq and Afghanistan it is striking that there has been no independent evaluation of Galula s recollection of his COIN operations in Algeria Galula in Algeria Counterinsurgency Practice versus Theory delivers just such an analysis exploring the colonial French counterinsurrectionary theoretical milieu of which Galula s COIN theory was a part the influence of Galula s theory on U S COIN doctrine and the current views of Galula s theory in France and other NATO countries French defense researcher Grégor Mathias compares each of the eight steps of Galula s theory set out in Counterinsurgency Warfare against his practice of them as described in his writings and now for the first time against the SAS archives and those of Galula s infantry company and battalion The study shows that Galula systematically inflated his operational successes to match his theoretical scheme and that he left problems unresolved causing his work to unravel quickly after he left his command Mathias concludes that however heuristically fruitful Galula s theory might prove for U S COIN doctrine it must be interpreted and implemented under the caveat that it was not successfully field tested by its author Burning the veil Neil MacMaster,2020-02-28 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Burning the veil draws upon sources from newly opened archives exploring the emancipation of Muslim women from the veil seclusion and perceived male oppression during the Algerian War of decolonisation The claimed French liberation was contradicted by the violence inflicted on women through rape torture and destruction of villages This book examines the roots of this contradiction in the theory of revolutionary warfare and the attempt to defeat the National Liberation Front by penetrating the Muslim family seen as a bastion of resistance Striking parallels with contemporary Afghanistan and Iraq French emancipation produced a backlash that led to deterioration in the social and political position of Muslim women This analysis of how and why attempts to Westernise Muslim women ended in catastrophe has contemporary relevance and will be important to students and academics engaged in the study of French and colonial history feminism and contemporary Islam
