Translated From the German by John and Necke Mander* György Lukács,1963 Aesthetics and Politics Ernst Bloch,1980 No other country and no other period has produced a tradition of major aesthetic debate to compare with that which unfolded in German culture from the 1930s to the 1950s In Aesthetics and Politics the key texts of the great Marxist controversies over literature and art during these years are assembled in a single volume They do not form a disparate collection but a continuous interlinked debate between thinkers who have become giants of twentieth century intellectual history

Radical History and the Politics of Art Gabriel Rockhill,2014-07-15 Gabriel Rockhill opens new space for rethinking the relationship between art and politics Rather than understanding the two spheres as separated by an insurmountable divide or linked by a privileged bridge Rockhill demonstrates that art and politics are not fixed entities with a singular relation but rather dynamically negotiated sociohistorical practices with shifting and imprecise borders Radical History and the Politics of Art proposes a significant departure from extant debates on what is commonly called art and politics and the result is an impressive foray into the force field of history in which cultural practices are meticulously analyzed in their social and temporal dynamism without assuming a conceptual unity behind them Rockhill thereby develops an alternative logic of history and historical change as well as a novel account of social practices and a multidimensional theory of agency Engaging with a diverse array of intellectual artistic and political constellations this tour

Lukácsian film theory and cinema Ian Aitken, 2021-06-15 Lukácsian film theory and cinema explores Georg Lukács' writings on film The Hungarian Marxist critic Georg Lukács is primarily known as a literary theorist but he also wrote extensively on the cinema These writings have remained little known in the English speaking world because the great majority of them have never actually been translated into English until now Aitken has gathered together the most important essays and the translations appear here often for the first time This book thus makes a decisive contribution to understandings of Lukács within the field of film studies and in doing so also challenges many existing preconceptions concerning his theoretical position For example whilst Lukács' literary theory is well known for its repudiation of naturalism in his writings on film Lukács appears to advance a theory and practice of film that can best be described as naturalist Lukácsian film theory and cinema is divided into two parts In part one Lukács' writings on film are explored and placed within relevant historical and intellectual contexts whilst part two consists of the essays themselves This book will be of considerable interest to scholars and students working within the fields of film studies literary studies intellectual history media and cultural studies It is also intended to be the final volume in a trilogy of works on cinematic realism which includes the author's earlier European film theory and cinema 2001 and Realist film theory and cinema 2006 Unsettling Nature Taylor Eggan, 2022-03-24 The German poet and mystic Novalis once identified philosophy as a form of homesickness More than two centuries later as modernity's displacements continue to intensify we feel Novalis's homesickness more than ever Yet nowhere has a longing for home flourished more than in contemporary environmental thinking and particularly in eco phenomenology If only we can reestablish our sense of material enmeshment in nature so the logic goes we might reverse the degradation we humans have wrought and in saving the earth we can once again dwell in the nearness of our own being Unsettling Nature opens with a meditation on the trouble with such ecological homecoming narratives which bear a close resemblance to narratives of settler colonial homemaking Taylor Eggan demonstrates that the Heideggerian strain of eco phenomenology along with its well trod categories of home dwelling and world produces uncanny effects in settler colonial contexts He reads instances of nature's defamiliarization not merely as psychological phenomena but also as symptoms of the repressed consciousness of coloniality The book at once critiques Heidegger's phenomenology and brings it forward through chapters on Willa Cather D H Lawrence Olive Schreiner Doris Lessing and J M Coetzee Suggesting that alienation may in fact be natural to the human condition and hence something worth embracing instead of repressing Unsettling Nature concludes with a speculative proposal to transform eco phenomenology into exo phenomenology an experiential mode that engages deeply with the alterity of others and with the self as its own Other Edward Upward and Left-Wing Literary Culture in Britain Benjamin Kohlmann, 2016-04-29 Offering the first book length consideration of Edward Upward 1903 2009 one of the major British left wing writers this collection positions his life and works in the changing artistic social and political contexts of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries Upward s fiction and non fiction from the 1920s onwards illustrate the thematic and formal richness of left wing writing during the twentieth century age of extremes At the same time Upward s work shows the inherent tensions of a life committed at once to writing and to politics The full range of Upward s work and a wealth of unpublished materials are examined including his early fantastic stories of the 1920s his Marxist fiction of the 1930s the extraordinary semi autobiographical trilogy The Spiral Ascent and his formally and thematically innovative later stories The essays collected here reevaluate Upward s central place in twentieth century British literary culture and assess his legacy for the twenty first century Fiction, Crime, and Empire Jon Thompson, 1993 Reading fiction from high and low culture together Fiction Crime and Empire skillfully sheds light on how crime fiction responded to the British and American experiences of empire and how forms such as the detective novel spy thrillers and conspiracy fiction articulate powerful cultural responses to imperialism Poe s Dupin stories for example are seen as embodying a highly critical vision of the social forces that were then transforming the United States into a modern democratic industrialized nation a century later Le Carr employs the conventions of espionage fiction to critique the exhausted and morally compromised values of British imperialism By exploring these works through the organizing figure of crime during and after the age of high imperialism Thompson challenges and modifies commonplace definitions of modernism postmodernism and popular or mass culture Modern European Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2006-04-21 Modern European Criticism and Theory offers the reader a comprehensive critical overview of the widespread and profound contest of ideas within European theory The book focuses primarily on the thought of major voices in poetics philosophy linguistics and psychoanalysis as well as in literary and cultural studies from the Enlightenment to the present day Examining how conceptions of subjectivity identity and gender have been questioned the more than 50 essays written by acknowledged experts in their fields critically assess the ways in which we think see and act in the world as well as the ways in which we represent such thought psychologically politically and culturally A further reading list accompanies each chapter The Event of Style in Literature M. Aquilina, 2014-09-16 The Event of Style in Literature brings discussions about the question of style up to date by schematising the principal issues relating to the topic through a critical overview of the canon of style studies It reads the work of Jacques Derrida Maurice Blanchot and Hans Georg Gadamer as groundbreaking and eventful interventions
