Culinary Herbs & Spices of the World Ben-Erik van Wyk, 2014-09-26 For centuries herbs and spices have been an integral part of many of the world's great cuisines But spices have a history of doing much more than adding life to bland foods They have been the inspiration for among other things trade exploration and poetry Priests employed them in worship incantations and rituals and shamans used them as charms to ward off evil spirits Nations fought over access to and monopoly of certain spices like cinnamon and nutmeg when they were rare commodities Not only were many men's fortunes made in the pursuit of spices spices at many periods throughout history literally served as currency In Culinary Herbs and Spices of the World Ben Erik van Wyk offers the first fully illustrated scientific guide to nearly all commercial herbs and spices in existence Van Wyk covers more than 150 species from black pepper and blackcurrant to white mustard and white ginger detailing the propagation cultivation and culinary uses of each Introductory chapters capture the essence of culinary traditions traditional herb and spice mixtures preservation presentation and the chemistry of flavors and individual entries include the chemical compounds and structures responsible for each spice or herb's characteristic flavor Many of the herbs and spices van Wyk covers are familiar fixtures in our own spice racks but a few especially those from Africa and China will be introduced for the first time to American audiences Van Wyk also offers a global view of the most famous use or signature dish for each herb or spice satisfying the gourmand's curiosity for more information about new dishes from little known culinary traditions People all over the world are becoming more sophisticated and demanding about what they eat and how it is prepared Culinary Herbs and Spices of the World will appeal to those inquisitive foodies in addition to gardeners and botanists

The New Cultures of Food Martin K. Hingley, 2016-03-03 Food is an extraordinary expression of culture the assortment of flavours smells colours and appearance match the diversity of the cultures from which they come and provide very visible evidence of the migration of populations and of the growing multiculturalism of many countries Adam Lindgreen and Martin K Hingley draw on research into European Latin American and Near and Far Eastern markets to provide a comprehensive collection of original cutting edge research on the opportunities that the changing landscapes of ethnic religious and cultural populations present for businesses and marketers The New Cultures of Food uses the perspective of food culture to explore the role of food as a social agent and attitudes to new foodstuffs amongst indigenous populations and to indigenous food amongst immigrant communities Opportunities and routes to market for exploiting growing demand for ethnic food are also investigated This is an important book for food and consumer businesses policy makers and researchers seeking to understand changing global markets and the significance of food as an indicator of social and religious attitude diet and ethnic identity A Taste of Love: Eat, Love, Vegan Joanna Slodownik, 2020-08-30 It was supposed to be a MAKEOVER of her family RESTAURANT not her LIFE A clean romantic comedy with a touch of romance plus some delicious vegan recipes When Alexandra agrees to take care of the family restaurant she thinks it s only temporary until her father recovers from a massive heart attack What she doesn t know is that the restaurant is in trouble and participating in the Xtreme Restaurant Makeover television show may be the only way to save it The show is hosted by a hot but cutthroat celebrity chef Russell Stone who turns around failing restaurants in less than five days but his style and manners or lack of thereof are hard for Alexandra to swallow Dirty pots and pans fly around the kitchen food gets spit out and interiors are gutted as millions are watching and cheering the bigger the humiliation of the restaurant owner the higher the ratings She despises the very idea of it and doesn t think she could do it Or could she The Living Age ,1846
