The Mende Of Sierra Leone A West African People In Translation:

Coastal Sierra Leone Jennifer Diggins, 2018-06-28 A rich ethnographic account of young West African fisherfolk navigating a precarious social and economic environment shaped by ecological crisis war and secrecy The Underneath of Things Mariane C. Ferme, 2001-09-14 In this erudite and gracefully written ethnography Mariane Ferme explores the links between a violent historical and political legacy and the production of secrecy in everyday material culture The focus is on Mende speaking southeastern Sierra Leone and the surrounding region Since 1990 this area has been ravaged by a civil war that produced population displacements and regional instability The Underneath of Things documents the rural impact of the progressive collapse of the Sierra Leonean state in the past several decades and seeks to understand how an even earlier history is reinscribed in the present

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available

African Identities Kadiatu Kanneh, 2002-01-04 This fascinating and well researched study explores the meaning generated by Africa and Blackness throughout the century Using literary texts autobiography ethnography and historical documents African Identities discusses how ideas of Africa as an origin as a cultural whole or as a complicated political problematic emerge as signifiers for analysis of modernity nationhood and racial difference Kanneh provides detailed readings of a range of literary texts including novels by Toni Morrison Alice Walker Gloria Naylor Ngugi Wa Thiong o Chinua Achebe and V S Naipaul For anyone interested in literature history anthropology political writing feminist or cultural analysis this book opens up new areas of thought across disciplines

The Mande Blacksmiths Patrick R. McNaughton, 1988 Finely crafted scholarship Elegant and graceful yet packed with knowledge and information it embodies the aesthetic qualities which it describes and explores American Ethnologist The text is detailed and informative and enjoyable reading Choice The Mande Blacksmith is an important book sensitive sympathetic multifaceted and thorough African Arts McNaughton s Mande Blacksmiths is undeniably the most profound study of African artists yet published Ethnoarts penetrating McNaughton boldly grapples with the thorniest issues related to his subject and articulates them with clarity and precision International Journal of African Historical Studies a work in the best tradition of ethnographic research critical reappraisal innovative inquiry and fresh observation make this book an invaluable fund of new material on Mande societies American Anthropologist McNaughton provides an important interpretation of these artists conceptual place as members of a complex culture Religious Studies Review Examining the artistic technological social and spiritual dimensions of Mande blacksmiths who are the sculptors of their society McNaughton defines these artists conceptual place as extraordinary members of a complex culture Museum Pieces Ruth B. Phillips, 2011-10-26 Ruth Phillips argues that these practices are indigenous not only because they originate in Aboriginal activism but because they draw on a distinctively Canadian preference for compromise and tolerance for ambiguity Phillips dissects seminal exhibitions of Indigenous art to show how changes in display curatorial voice and authority stem from broad social economic and political forces outside the museum and moves beyond Canadian institutions and practices to discuss historically interrelated developments and exhibitions in the United States Britain Australia and elsewhere Drawing on forty years of experience as an art historian curator exhibition critic and museum director she emphasizes the complex and situated nature of the problems that face museums introducing new perspectives on controversial exhibitions and moments of contestation A manifesto that calls on us to re imagine the museum as a place to embrace global interconnectedness Museum Pieces emphasizes the transformative power of museum controversy and analyses shifting ideas about art authenticity and power in the modern museum

African-American Exploration in West Africa James Fairhead, Tim Geysbeek, Svend E. Holsoe, Melissa Leach, 2003-11-13 In the 1860s as America waged civil war several thousand African Americans sought greater freedom by emigrating to the fledgling nation of Liberia While some argued that the new black republic represented disposal rather than emancipation a few intrepid men set out to explore their African home African American Exploration in West Africa collects the travel diaries of James L Sims George L Seymour and Benjamin J K Anderson who explored the territory that is now Liberia and Guinea between 1858 and 1874 These remarkable diaries reveal the wealth and beauty of Africa in striking descriptions of its geography people flora and fauna The dangers of the journeys surface too Seymour was attacked and later died of his wounds and his companion Levin Ash was captured and sold into slavery again Challenging the notion that there were no black explorers in Africa these diaries provide unique perspectives on 19th century Liberian life and life in the interior of the continent before it was radically changed by European colonialism Writing and Ancient Near East Society Alan Ralph Millard, Piotr Bienkowski, C.B. Mee, E.A. Slater, 2005-10-27 Series of papers on the general topic of writing and its uses and significance for wider ancient Near Eastern society based on a colloquium in honor of Professor Alan Millard held in Liverpool in May 2003 Radiance from the Waters Sylvia Ardyn Boone, 1986-01-01 The Sande Society of the Mende people of Sierra Leone is a secret female regulatory society that both guards and transmits the ideals of feminine beauty so fundamental to the aesthetic criteria in Mende culture In this eloquent and moving book Sylvia Ardyn Boone describes the Society its rituals and organization and the mask worn by its members Her book is an evocative account of Mende life and philosophy as well as a unique contribution to the study of African art one based on African conceptions about the person and the human body This is a beautiful and beautifully written book Boone writes in ways that reveal her evident devotion to Mende culture John Picton African Affairs A major contribution to our ethnographic understanding of Mende culture and to understanding the way concepts of women's bodies encode cultural messages about gender relations E Frances White Women's Review of Books A respectful approach to the mysteries of the Sande by an art historian who has tiptoed where anthropologists feared to tread Radiance from the Waters deserves to be read It provides something more interesting than esoteric knowledge an extended meditation on notions of beauty and decorum and the way in which these can be translated simultaneously into art and advancement for women John Ryle London Review of Books The first text to illuminate the power of the feminine aesthetic in West African art Ms The Dark Road from Romarong Wilfred Kanu Jr.,2024-01-25 How did the region of West Africa called Romarong become what we know as Freetown the capital of Sierra Leone Romarong was a hotbed The Mali Empire collapsed and the Songhai came into prominence There were the Arab and European slave trades This story concludes when the British colonized the region Exploring this anecdote from the natives perspective fits Freddy Will's impression that Sierra Leone was part of the ancient Koya Empire It also sheds light on the specific impacts of her numerous ethnic groups It's a bold outing that showcases the heritage and correlates how the unique traditional and religious culture hitches the ethnic groups It encompasses the history and culture of the ancient West African coastal and hinterland dwellers who emigrated and intermarried as the Trans Saharan and Trans Atlantic slave trades proceeded The reader follows the journey of Mende Temne Susu Malinke Kisi Loko and Fulani people The author gives this account connecting the West African perspective with the liberated Blacks who arrived there Romarong means a place of wailers or land of tears Horrid weather conditions pandemics tribal wars human trafficking the assimilation of Islam and Christianity and colonization Learn about the repatriation of freed Blacks from England the United States Canada and the West Indies and how the colonization of Freetown and her surroundings shaped what we now know as Sierra Leone The legendary Bai Burreh's epic hut tax war against the British and the brave Sengbe Pieh's rebellion aboard the Spanish ship La Amistad Krio is a broken language from English French Portuguese German European cultural impacts Mende Limba and Temne among other African languages Freed melanated people returning from the United States Canada England and the Caribbean islands developed the tongue This book also includes the English translations of the Krio lyrics from the accompanying hip hop album Dark Horse from Romarong a City of Kings by hip hop recording artist Freddy Will He recorded the music in the Krio language of Sierra Leone Oriental list (and book review quarterly). Luzac and co,1902 Luzac's Oriental List and Book Review ,1901 West African Folktales Jack Berry,Richard A. Spears,1991-10 Collection of West African folktales drawn from prose narratives proverbs riddles and songs Akan Christology Charles Sarpong Aye-Addo,2013-07-12 As Christianity expands and grows in Africa there is deep new interest in African theology in general and the way in which some African theologians are interpreting the significance of Christ within African culture in particular This volume explores the Christology of two of the foremost African thinkers against the background of the West African Akan culture The result is a rare and fascinating look at some of the key cultural symbols of African culture the struggle to reinterpret the white blond blue eyed Christ presented by pioneering missionaries to Africa and the pitfalls and promises that attend the exercise The selected theologians John Samuel Pobee and Kwame Bediako are put into a critical conversation with Karl Barth in order to initiate a dialogue between Western theology and African theology that brings to the fore some of the pertinent issues about the particularity and universality of Christ The volume while seeking to make Christ relevant for Africa moves away from romanticizing African culture and insists on being faithful to the biblical witness to Christ The result is an attempt to present an engaging piece of work that makes a significant contribution to contemporary debates on Christology and indigenous theology

Handbook of the Language Industry Gary Massey, Maureen Ehrensberger-Dow, Erik Angelone, 2024-07-01 Digital transformation and demographic change are profoundly affecting the contexts in which the language industry operates the resources it deploys and the roles and skillsets of those it employs Driven by evolving digital resources and socio ethical demands the roles and responsibilities deriving from the proliferation of new and emerging profiles in the language industry are transcending the traditional bounds of core activities and competences associated with prototypical concepts of translation and interpreting This volume focuses on the realities in the language industry from the fresh perspective of current and emerging professional profiles and of the contexts and resources that condition and support them It traces the industry's evolution maps its current state and considers key aspects of its workplaces actors and practices In an age when artificial intelligence is challenging traditionally held views of human performance it addresses the issue of where and how human agents add value to the industry's processes and products with a detailed research based consideration of the activities competences roles responsibilities and tools that characterize the language industry of today and the near future

Syncretism/Anti-Syncretism Rosalind Shaw, Charles Stewart, 2003-12-16 Syncretism the synthesis of different religions is a contentious word Some regard it as a pejorative term referring to local versions of notionally standard world religions which are deemed inauthentic because saturated with indigenous content Syncretic versions of Christianity do not conform to official read European models In other contexts however the syncretic amalgamation of religions may be validated as a mode of resistance to colonial hegemony a sign of cultural survival or as a means of authorising political dominance in a multicultural state In Syncretism Anti Syncretism the contributors explore the issues of agency and power which are integral to the very process of syncretism and to the competing discourses surrounding the term
