The Merrill Studies In The Marble Faun Charles E Merrill Studies:

The Merrill Studies in The Marble Faun David B. Kesterson, 1971-01-01 Hawthorne, Gender, and Death R. Weldon, 2008-03-31 This book draws on a range of critical approaches including cultural anthropology psychoanalytic theory political justice theory and feminist theory to consider the ways that strategies of death denial and their compensatory consolations offer insight into the ethical gender and religious questions raised by Hawthorne's novels The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén, 2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ullén argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne's writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne's mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne's writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations The Problematic Fictions of Poe, James, and Hawthorne Judith L. Sutherland, 1984 Civilized Creatures Jennifer Mason, 2005-08-04 In Civilized Creatures Jennifer Mason challenges some of our most enduring ideas about how encounters with nonhuman nature shaped American literature and culture Mason argues that in the second half of the nineteenth century the most powerful influence on Americans' understanding of their affinities with animals was not increasing separation from the pastoral and the wilderness instead it was the population's feelings about the ostensibly civilized animals they encountered in their daily lives Americans of diverse backgrounds Mason shows found it attractive as well as politic to imagine themselves as most closely connected to those creatures who shared humans' aptitude for civilized life And to the minds of many in this period national prosperity depended less on periodic exposure to untamed wild nature than it did on the proper care and keeping of such animals within suburban and urban environments Combining literary analysis with cultural histories of equestrianism petkeeping and the animal welfare movement Civilized Creatures offers new readings of works by Susan Warner Nathaniel Hawthorne Harriet Beecher Stowe and Charles W. Chesnut In each case Mason demonstrates that understanding contemporary relationships between humans and animals is essential for understanding the debates about gender race and cultural power enacted in these texts
