The Truth About Lies Aja Raden, 2021-05-11 Why do you believe what you believe You've been lied to Probably a lot We're always stunned when we realize we've been deceived We can't believe we were fooled What was I thinking How could I have believed that We always wonder why we believed the lie But have you ever wondered why you believe the truth People tell you the truth all the time and you believe them and if at some later point you're confronted with evidence that the story you believed was indeed true you never wonder why you believed it in the first place In this incisive and insightful taxonomy of lies and liars New York Times bestselling author Aja Raden makes the surprising claim that maybe you should Buttressed by history psychology and science The Truth About Lies is both an eye opening primer on con artistry from pyramid schemes to shell games forgery to hoaxes and also a telescopic view of society through the mechanics of belief why we lie why we believe and how if at all the acts differ Through wild tales of cons and marks Raden examines not only how lies actually work but also why they work from the evolutionary function of deception to what it reveals about our own In her previous book Stoned Raden asked What makes a thing valuable In The Truth About Lies she asks What makes a thing real With cutting wit and a deft touch Raden untangles the relationship of truth to lie belief to faith and deception to propaganda The Truth About Lies will change everything you thought you knew about what you know and whether you ever really know it The Victoria Principle Michael Farrell,2025-05-01 In The Victoria Principle Michael Farrell extends the humour and narrative drive demonstrated in recent collections such as I Love Poetry and Googlecholia to the short story The collection begins with a writer character trying to do literary justice to the fear of birds other stories feature creative activity such as the conceptual artist who deliberately boils an egg to Nirvana s Smells Like Teen Spirit or the would be writers who attend a nude retreat in Nova Scotia There is pathos too in a storyteller s relationship with his sister and in that of a gay doctor with a straight Italian waiter who is trying to make ends meet while supporting two children with two different women The stories also revisit classical and popular myths such as the judgement of Paris and the life of Andy Gibb The associations brought into play can be unexpected or absurd but the process has its own logic we may think of these fictions as meta fictions as thought stories rather than short stories offering inflections and reflections on queer Catholicism and mental breakdown amidst the ongoing contradictions and ironies of contemporary Australian life The Films of the Eighties Robert A. Nowlan,1991-01-01 The 1980s had more than its share of both emerging stars and final tributes paid to luminaries as well as smash hits and bombs memorable and boring performances and new trends and tried and true formula offerings The Film of the Eighties includes numerous examples of all of these Each entry has the year of release production company country of origin U S U K Australian Canadian leading performers and the characters they portrayed and comprehensive credits A brief description review and evaluation of the film s cinematic values if any are also provided On Søren Kierkegaard Professor Edward F Mooney,2013-05-28 Tracing a path through Kierkegaard s writings this book brings the reader into close contact with the texts and purposes of this remarkable 19th century Danish writer and thinker Kierkegaard writes in a number of voices and registers as a sharp observer and critic of Danish culture or as a moral psychologist and as a writer concerned to evoke the religious way of life of Socrates Abraham or a Christian exemplar In developing these themes Mooney sketches Kierkegaard s Socratic vocation gives a close reading of several central texts and traces The Ethical Sublime as a recurrent theme He unfolds an affirmative relationship between philosophy and theology and the potentialities for a religiousness that defies dogmatic creeds secular chauvinisms and restrictive philosophies Meryl Streep Eugene E. Pfaff,Mark Emerson,1987 Streep is the embodiment of the new actress More private in her personal life she is a career risk taker not afraid of sensitive and complex characters These attributes and the subtlety of her art have won her wide praise This gracefully written book
