The Pauline Metaphors of the Holy Spirit Erik Konsmo, 2010 In the Pauline literature of the New Testament the characteristics of the Spirit and Christian life are described through the use of metaphor An interpreter of Paul must understand his metaphors in order to arrive at a complete understanding of the Pauline pneumatological perspective Thus The Pauline Metaphors of the Holy Spirit examines how the Pauline Spirit metaphors express the intangible Spirit's tangible presence in the life of the Christian Rhetoricians prior to and contemporary with Paul discussed the appropriate usage of metaphor Aristotle's thoughts provided the foundation from which these rhetoricians framed their arguments In this context The Pauline Metaphors surveys the use of metaphor in the Greco Roman world during the NT period and also studies modern approaches to metaphor The modern linguistic theories of substitution comparison and verbal opposition are offered as representative examples as well as the conceptual theories of interaction cognitive linguistic and the approach of Zoltán Kövecses In examining these metaphors it is important to understand their systematic and coherent attributes These can be divided into structural orientational and ontological characteristics which are rooted in the conceptual approach of metaphor asserted by George Lakoff and Mark Johnson This book evaluates these characteristics against each of the Pauline Spirit metaphors
