Becoming a Midwife in the 21st Century Ian Peate,Cathy Hamilton,2013-03-19 The NMC have produced standards of proficiency for pre registration midwifery education and those standards have been written in an academic language for higher education institutions Each student prior to being admitted to the profession must have achieved the proficiencies stated in the NMC publication The purpose of this book is to provide students with material related to the standards of midwifery education. The students will be able to use the contents of this text and relate it to their own approved programme of midwifery study as their programme of study would have had to comply with NMC's requirements. It will help student midwives appreciate how their own programmes have been designed and why they are required to study and understand some of the subjects they are or will be studying.

Myles' Textbook for Midwives E-Book Jayne E. Marshall, Maureen D. Raynor, 2020-05-12. Written by midwives for midwives. Myles Textbook for Midwives has been the seminal textbook of midwifery for over 60 years. It offers comprehensive coverage of topics fundamental to 21st midwifery practice. Co-edited for the second time by internationally renowned midwife educationalists Professor Jayne E. Marshall and Maureen D. Raynor from the United Kingdom with a team of contributors from across the midwifery community, it retains its clear accessible writing style. Most chapters provide useful case studies, websites of key organisations and charities for individuals to access further information. Reflective questions at the end of each chapter as well as annotated further reading aid reflective learning and stimulate discussions relating to continuing professional development. The book covers key frameworks that govern midwifery practice, exploring ethical and legal frameworks that are essential to every accountable autonomous professional midwife. Includes employer-led models of supervision, vital elements of leadership and clinical governance that supports the provision of high quality maternity services and standards of midwifery practice. The concept of resilience is introduced for the reader to contemplate their personal contribution in creating an environment that is conducive to protecting the wellbeing of themselves and colleagues within the workplace. The text covers the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, highlighting the importance of midwives as global citizens with common goals and together they form a strong global community prepared to challenge social inequalities and take action to help end extreme poverty. Covers designing and implementing high quality midwifery care using evidence, policy and models of care. Highlights why a holistic and evidence-informed approach is necessary to achieve effective care for all. Working examples will help the reader to think critically about their own practice. For this edition several new chapters are introduced covering concealed pregnancy, fear of childbirth, tocophobia, care of the acutely unwell woman and end of life issues, including rights of the fetus, neonate and ethical considerations.

Care of the Newborn by Ten Teachers Hilary Lumsden, Debbie Holmes, 2018-09-27. Caring for the well newborn is an essential element of everyday midwifery practice. Providing a comprehensive guide to the problems associated with newborn babies, Care of the Newborn by Ten Teachers is a key textbook for trainee midwives. The ten teachers involved in writing this book are drawn from all over the UK and bring together a wealth of experience.
