The Planning Partnership Participants Views Of Urban Renewal:

The Planning Partnership Zane L. Miller, Thomas H. Jenkins, 1982-03 The participants in the planning of an urban development project describe in original essays how the renewal scheme was formulated City officials community leaders a team of planners and faculty members of the University of Cincinnati worked together in an attempt to create a safe attractive neighbourhood out of a decaying slum Organized applied research involving several disciplines legally mandated citizen participation a commitment to establishing a racially integrated neighbourhood these are some of the elements that made the project unique

The Third City Larry Bennett, 2024-05-31 Our traditional image of Chicago as a gritty metropolis carved into ethnically defined enclaves where the game of machine politics overshadows its ends is such a powerful shaper of the city's identity that many of its closest observers fail to notice that a new Chicago has emerged over the past two decades Larry Bennett here tackles some of our more commonly held ideas about the Windy City inherited from such icons as Theodore Dreiser Carl Sandburg Daniel Burnham Robert Park Sara Paretsky and Mike Royko with the goal of better understanding Chicago as it is now the third city Bennett calls contemporary Chicago the third city to distinguish it from its two predecessors the first city a sprawling industrial center whose historical arc ran from the Civil War to the Great Depression and the second city the Rustbelt exemplar of the period from around 1950 to 1990 The third city features a dramatically revitalized urban core a shifting population mix that includes new immigrant streams and a growing number of middle class professionals working in new economy sectors It is also a city utterly transformed by the top to bottom reconstruction of public housing developments and the ambitious provision of public works like Millennium Park It is according to Bennett a work in progress spearheaded by Richard M Daley a self consciously innovative mayor whose strategy of neighborhood revitalization and urban renewal is a prototype of city governance for the twenty first century The Third City ultimately contends that to understand Chicago under Daley's charge is to understand what metropolitan life across North America may well look like in the coming decades

Beyond Preservation Andrew Hurley, 2010-05-21 A framework for stabilizing and strengthening inner city neighborhoods through the public interpretation of historic landscapes

Making Sense of the City Zane L. Miller, 2001 Through an examination of such topics as city charters city planning texts neighborhood organizations municipal recreation programs urban government reforms urban identity and fair housing campaigns the authors offer insight into the process through which ideas about the nature of the city have affected action in the urban environment

Urban Renewal, Community and Participation

Julie Clark,Nicholas Wise,2018-05-02 This edited collection investigates the human dimension of urban renewal using a range of case studies from Africa Asia Europe India and North America to explore how the conception and delivery of regeneration initiatives can strengthen or undermine local communities Ultimately aiming to understand how urban residents can successfully influence or manage change in their own communities contributing authors interrogate the complex relationships between policy planning economic development governance systems history and urban morphology Alongside more conventional methods analytical approaches include built form analysis participant observation photographic analysis and urban labs Appealing to upper level undergraduate and masters students academics and others involved in urban renewal the book offers a rich combination of theoretical insight and empirical analysis contributing to literature on gentrification the right to the city and community participation in neighbourhood change

Partnership, Collaborative

Planning and Urban Regeneration John McCarthy,2016-05-13 Approaches to urban regeneration have changed dramatically throughout Europe and the USA over recent decades drawing on notions of public private partnership growth coalitions and local spatial alliances In this engaging book John McCarthy provides critical consideration of such theories in terms of their application to practice He shows how these notions are used to explain the nature and underlying processes of urban development and to further objectives for urban regeneration To test their applicability he examines the case of Dundee including the role of the Dundee Partnership a model for many aspects of partnership working The resulting conclusions suggest ways in which the practice of urban regeneration can be improved in terms of inclusion equity and sustainability
