

PEACE

I once asked a Friend, what is Peace to you?

And He told me,
That peace is akin to being able to sleep, even in the midst of storm.

It is a state of internal calmness, Even when the external environment is in a state of chaos and tumult, Even when the world is aflame, or when it's against you.

BOOK JACKET War and Peace in Contemporary Eritrean Poetry Charles Cantalupo,2009 War and Peace in Contemporary Eritrean Poetry focuses on Eritrean written poetry from roughly the last three decades of the twentieth century The poems appear in the anthology Who Needs a Story Contemporary Eritrean Poetry in Tigrinya Tigre and Arabic from which a selection is offered here in their original scripts of Ge ez or Arabic and in English translation Who Needs a Story is the first anthology of contemporary poetry from Eritrea ever published and War and Peace in Contemporary Eritrean Poetry is the first book on the subject Therefore the groundbreaking effort of the former warrants a discussion of its means of cultural production All of the poets in Who Needs a Story participated in the Eritrean struggle for independence 1961-91 as freedom fighters and or as supporters in the Eritrean diaspora Thus contemporary Eritrean poetry divides itself between experiences of war and peace although one can contain the other as well War and Peace in Contemporary Eritrean Poetry also includes an extended analysis of one of Eritrea's most famous contemporary poets Reesom Haile as an example of the kind of extended analysis that many of the poets of Who Needs a Story should stimulate and last but not least a meditation on how the author a non native speaker personally becomes involved in Eritrean poetry translation
