South American Free Trade Area or Free Trade Area of the Americas? Mario Carranza, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 This work examines the hemispheric diplomacy after the Summits of the Americas in Miami December 1994 and Santiago April 1998 focusing on the strengthening of the South American position in the FTAA negotiations and the Brazilian proposal for a South American Free Trade Area SAFTA The book also looks at the implications of the preceding analysis for regional integration theory and international relations theory The conclusion looks beyond open regionalism and considers three scenarios for US South American relations after the Santiago Summit First reassertion of US hegemony and signing of an FTAA agreement on schedule second erosion of US hegemony but continuing negotiations between North and South America for a distant FTAA and finally breakdown of the FTAA negotiations and emergence of SAFTA as an alternative to the FTAA Hacia el Libre Comercio en las Americas Jose Manuel Salazar-Xirinachs, Maryse Robert, 2010-12-01 A Brookings Institution Press and the Organization of American States publication This is the Spanish language version of Toward Free Trade in America In the past 15 years the nations of the Western Hemisphere have staged a remarkable revolution in the way they trade with their neighbors First after decades of restrictive import policies several countries began to liberalize their trade and investment regimes Then beginning a decade ago numerous bilateral and sub regional trade agreements were achieved to serve as vital complements to domestic reforms and to foster trade flows among member countries At the Second Summit of the Americas in 1998 negotiations among 34 democracies were launched to establish the Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA This report takes stock of the remarkable progress to date in the development of free trade in the Western Hemisphere It examines trade flows between countries in the same regional groupings and between members of different sub regional arrangements The report describes the main characteristics of the trade arrangements signed between countries of the Hemisphere and explores the development of trade rules in these arrangements Finally the report details recent advances in the construction of the FTAA
