Notes

From A Small Room Ruskin Bond, 2017-08-29 It's the simple things in life that keep us from going crazy Ruskin Bond writes in this enchanting collection of essays a celebration of the uncomplicated pleasures of a life well lived In A Good Philosophy we learn of Bond's life philosophy or the lack of it and In Search of the Perfect Window we join him in meditating on the qualities of a good window and its importance to a room Whether contemplating the sound of a tropical downpour on the fragrance of lime trees in the Himalayas or on a year spent with his cat Suzie Ruskin Bond transports us to a quieter more elegant world where time moves at a gentle pace He invites us to revel in the intricacies of life and to poke fun at its absurdities with insight wisdom and wit

Food in Ancient Judah Cynthia Shafer-Elliott, 2014-09-11 First published in 2013 The study of food in the Hebrew Bible and Syro Palestinian archaeology has tended to focus on kosher dietary laws the sacrificial system and feasting in elite contexts More everyday ritual and practice the preparation of food in the home has been overlooked Food in Ancient Judah explores both the archaeological remains and ancient Near Eastern sources to see what they reveal about the domestic gastronomical daily life of ancient Judahites within the narratives of the Hebrew Bible

Beyond the findings the methodology of the study is in itself innovative Biblical passages that deal with domestic food preparation are translated and analysed Archaeological findings and relevant secondary resources are then applied to inform these passages Food in Ancient Judah reflects both the shift towards the study of everyday life in biblical studies and archaeology and the huge expansion of interest in food history it will be of interest to scholars in all these fields 22
