Soaps In The Afternoon Point:

Blood and Soap Linh Dinh, 2011-01-04 Blood and Soap is a breakthrough collection of modern day fables from a wildly inventive American writer whose fiction has been called terse and edgy Booklist and vividly imagined Kirkus Reviews Dinh's gift is for constructing in the manner of Italo Calvino simple narratives that quickly frame larger questions with a poet's timing the author builds his stories to the one or few climactic sentences that brand them with unforgettable meaning In one tale a Vietnamese boy's self-guided haphazard study of English gives way to a meditation on the universality of language Everything seems chaotic at first but nothing is chaotic One can read anything ants crawling on the ground pimples on a face trees in a forest In another story a man opens a newspaper and sees the photograph of a man he may have murdered which he impulsively clips only to feel that in doing so he unwittingly has sealed his crime As soon as I finished I realized what I had done by cutting my father's likeness out of the newspaper I had removed him from the world The collection crescendoes in displays of raw creative power as in Eight Plots a rapid fire of three and four sentence summaries and the brilliant impressionistic Blood and Soap is an arresting collection from one of a small number of writers on the vanguard of American fiction
