Institutions, Goals, Policies And Analytics In Economic Development Solomon I Cohen, 2024-07-09 The field of Development Economics DE has overstretched over time with risks of becoming shallow There is a need for the compartmentalization of DE that focuses on simplification oversight productivity and relevance This volume is a handbook in development economics with a compartmentalized perspective It makes use of case study applications both recent and over the last few decades Next to 2 introductory chapters that elaborate on the development regions the book falls in five parts The first part consisting of two chapters displays structural system changes in the development regions examines institutions that discourage promote development and applies institutional modelling to related case studies of land reform in India and Chile The second part consisting of two chapters takes the courageous step of discussing measuring and posting the twin development goals of growth with redistribution as the primary development goals and analysing their trade offs for major countries in the six development regions Secondary development goals are important but they correlate with the primary goals and are considered as conditional The third part consisting of eight chapters contains applications on multi sector development policies The applications use the Social Accounting Matrix and related economy wide modelling They highlight alternative policies to achieve the development goals of growth and redistribution in Pakistan Indonesia Korea UAE Nepal Sudan Suriname and other countries The fourth part consisting of six chapters examines human resource development and policies in the areas of labor market information systems labor market adjustments manpower forecasts earnings profiles educational plans and intergenerational mobility with case studies related to Pakistan Indonesia Colombia Korea Ethiopia The fifth and final part consisting of two chapters focuses on world development and global governance in particular the persistent income disparities at the global level in spite of the strengthened positions of the development regions in the world economy the consequences of shifting dominance for world governance the evaluation of the G 20 and a proposed more representative world governance Throughout all chapters special attention is devoted to introducing and applying analytical methods that have proven to be fundamental in development economics

Public Expenditure and Income Distribution in Malaysia

Mukaramah Harun, Sze Ying Loo, 2022-07-19 This book studies the impact of public expenditure allocations in achieving income equality goals in Malaysia The book examines the initial functional and institutional distribution of income across different institutional agents and sectors and evaluates the impact of the public expenditure policies in reducing the inter ethnic and rural urban disparity

Since Malaysia has made enormous progress in eliminating poverty the authors suggest that a change of emphasis in the public expenditure policy may now be called for They present evidence on the importance of public expenditure in improving income inequality and examine the initial functional and institutional distribution of income across different institutional agents and sectors The development of the Social Accounting Matrix SAM model that presents both economic and social statistics in an economy can be served as a useful tool of this work The SAM model is used to evaluate the impact of the public expenditure policies in reducing inter ethnic and rural urban disparity A comprehensive source of information on how to deal with inequality economic challenges the book will be of interest to economists and researchers on Southeast Asian Studies
