Social And Labour Practices Of Multinational Enterprises In The Textil:

Social and Labour Practices of Multinational Enterprises in the Food and Drink Industry International Labour Office, 1989
Competition has recently intensified in the food and drink industry With the current wave of mergers and acquisitions the original trend towards diversification into other sectors of the economy has been reversed as enterprises have reconcentrated their efforts on their core activities in order to penetrate new markets The Employment Effects of Multinational Enterprises in the United States and of American Multinationals Abroad Duncan C. Campbell, 1990

Textiles and Industrial Transition in Japan Dennis L. McNamara, 2019-05-15 Most of Japan's leading textile firms date back to the turn of the century Unlike many of their Western competitors however Japan's larger companies have survived the decline of a sector consumed by fierce international competition Providing the fullest English language account of Japanese textiles Dennis L. McNamara explores the entire sweep of the industry from factory to high fashion brokerage to policymaking circle Tracing the strategies by which the textile industry has survived he provides a distinctive view of Japanese capitalism in a climate of change McNamara reconstructs a world riven by the competing interests of state and capital firm and industry labor and management mill and merchant We encounter giant mogul companies and upstart independent mavericks such firms as Toray Toyobo Itochu Tsuzuki Kondobo Onward and Renown all hustling to restructure for survival Drawing on extensive interview data as well as recent Japanese and English language work in political economy and social anthropology McNamara describes a dynamic of competition between moguls and mavericks in a turbulent business torn by divisions but bound together by compromise He finds that despite enormous international pressures the industry has maintained much of its market share largely because state bureaucrats and leaders of major firms have managed to create a cooperative politics of adjustment A corporatist structuring of interests he concludes has helped to moderate decline and maintain stability permitting survival among the moguls without preventing the successful participation of mavericks Japanese Multinationals in Australia Peter Drysdale, Roger Farrell, 1999 Capitalism and Development Leslie Sklair, 2002-09-11 This collection draws together a distinguished group of authors to explore how capitalism contributes to the development and underdevelopment of the Third World It provides a superb overview of key concepts such as capitalism development modernization and dependency Multinational Companies in the Textile, Garment and Leather Industries, 1984 Trade union pub Survey report on the business organization and activities of multinational enterprises involved in the textile industry clothing industry and leather industry covers 59 MNEs based primarily in France Germany Federal Republic Japan the UK and the USA includes synthetic textile fibres and shoe industries assesses level of economic concentration reviews foreign investment joint ventures subsidiarys turnover sales and labour force briefly notes activities of the developing country MNEs Bibliography statistical tables European Works Councils in Multinational Enterprises Roger Blanpain, 1999 Deals with the genesis of the Council Directive 94/45/EC and describes the establishment of a works council or of a procedure for the purposes of informing and consulting employees Discusses the subsidiary requirements regarding information and consultation in case where no agreement has been reached Analyses the possibility of concluding pre existing agreements 1994 1996 Includes the text of the Directive 1994 and 1997 the state of transposition of the 1994 Directive into national law a list of companies which have concluded voluntary agreements and finally experience with Article 13 agreements as evaluated by the ETUC Social and Labour Practices of Multinational Enterprises in the Textiles, Clothing, and Footwear Industries International Labour Office,1984 Production Sharing ,1986
