Social Civics Our Government In Action:

Social Civics William Bennett Munro, Thomas Kennelly, Christopher McCarthy, 1970 High Points in the Work of the High Schools of New York City New York (N.Y.). Board of Education, 1937 Local Civics with National Purpose J. Spencer Clark, 2021-02-03 This book examines the development of civic education in the United States through the lives of two teachers at Shortridge High School SHS in Indianapolis around 1900 After situating civic education at the turn of the century the book describes the career of Laura Donnan her influences teaching extracurriculars and civic life through the lens of her unique epistemology shaped by negotiating the gendered ideologies of her era Then the book re examines Arthur W Dunn s career focusing on his ten years at SHS and the influence of Donnan on his popular community civics curriculum and subsequently the 1916 report The Social Studies in Secondary Education Previous scholars have overlooked Dunn s time at SHS viewing it simply as a stepping stone for the progressive educator s career This book argues that Dunn s time at SHS was pivotal to his career due to influential colleagues primarily Donnan To conclude Clark discusses the implications of Donnan s epistemology in shaping civic education in the United States Proceedings, ... Annual Session of the North Dakota Education Association North Dakota Education Association, 1911 Civics and Commerce, 1910

Proceedings of the 4th Annual Civic Education Conference (ACEC 2022) Dede Iswandi, Dwi Iman Muthaqin, Baeihaqi, Pitria Sopianingsih, Nida Mujahidah Fatimah, Sri Maesaroh, Akhmad Fauzi, Sarah Fadilah Zein, Diexy Inkha Pradana, 2023-08-26 This is an open access book The development of the industrial revolution era 4 0 and society 5 0 changed the ways of thinking and pedagogical practices in Civic Education toward a critical digital pedagogy In this context pedagogical practices focuses on both community and collaboration It remains open to the development of diverse information ways of communication and collaboration across cultural and political boundaries various perspectives in formulating definitions and solving problems It further requires instructional practices to use some applications beyond traditional educational institutions and contemporary digital technology in learning Therefore it is necessary to reprogram civic education in Indonesia within the framework of Critical Digital Pedagogy practice to shape students becoming good citizens in the digital era The Fourth Annual Civic Education Conference is an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary platform that aims to bring leading experts educators policymakers researchers lecturers teachers and students to examine and take strategic roles in developing Critical Digital Pedagogy and its implications for civic education Welcome to the 4th International Annual Civic Education Conference ACEC 2022 Striving for Excellence, 1993 Pop-Up Civics in 21st Century America Ryan Salzman, 2020-12-30 How people associate and engage in politics in the 21st century is notably different from similar behaviors in the 20th century Ryan Salzman examines the political potential of placemaking an increasingly popular set of behaviors that were unfamiliar to the American public until the last two decades Placemaking exemplifies a shift that is occurring in the way Americans participate in their political system and it appears that that participation is increasingly effective in the context of American democracy Informed by interviews surveys and material review Salzman compares the process of placemaking to traditional political and associational behaviors providing evidence that placemaking has tremendous political potential Placemaking is an innovative set of behaviors largely understood to influence economic and community development From painting crosswalks to community gardens Americans are engaging in their communities with real political and civic consequences This text expands our understanding of placemaking updating the way we think about civic and political engagement in the 21st century Pop Up Civics in 21st Century America Understanding the Political Potential of Placemaking will be of interest to those who study and research political behavior civil society arts and politics social movements and urban public policy

A Republic, If We Can Teach It Jeffrey Sikkenga,David Davenport,2024-05-14 America faces a crisis in civic education that imperils the long term health of our country Too many Americans especially young people do not have the knowledge of our history and principles necessary to sustain our republic Recent national test results reveal the sad state of civic education in our schools The 2022 report of the National Assessment of Educational Progress showed that only 22 percent of eighth graders tested were proficient or better in their knowledge of civics and proficiency in US history dropped to an anemic 13 percent The Annenberg Policy Center reported in 2019 that only 39 percent of Americans could name the three branches of government while its 2017 study showed that 37 percent could not name a single right in the First Amendment How can we keep a republic as Benjamin Franklin put it if we don t know what a republic is At a deeper level the crisis is not simply about facts and information If the next generations of Americans do not come to understand that our history and principles are good and that they merit their affection our experiment in self government could fail Action is needed now to reverse the trend The Third Branch ,2009 Citizenship Education in the United States Iftikhar Ahmad,2017-02-17

This book presents a history of the ideas and activities of the American Political Science Association APSA in the field of citizenship education in public schools Examining APSA s evolving objectives and strategies in implementing citizenship education Ahmad analyzes the complicated relationship between the teaching of government in the public schools and the APSA s changing visions of citizenship education By offering a narrative of political scientists ideas on citizenship and citizenship education Ahmad reveals the impact of APSA s worldview and official policies concerning pre collegiate curriculum and instruction in citizenship education By providing a comprehensive history of APSA s agenda and its implementation this book sheds light on the intersection between the pedagogical goals of political scientists and the meaning purpose and context for citizenship education in high schools The Politics of Civic Education Eleni M. Mantas-Kourounis,2024-06-10 This book chronicles the progression of civic education advocacy since the early 2000s It identifies the main actors that called for civic education reform describes their motivations and policy platforms and documents the path taken to capture state policy agendas It argues that No Child Left Behind incentivized civic education advocates to mobilize a call to action to restore emphasis on civics that materialized into national policy reform proposals that successfully captured the agendas of state legislatures and bureaucracies This book analyzes the implementation and sustainability of these civic education policy reforms by undertaking a comparative case study analysis of school districts in Utah and Connecticut Through the voices of teachers and district administrators the book tells the story of what happened when these state policy reforms inspired by national initiatives hit the local level where the rubber meets the road As ideological debates about schools and democracy unfold across the country as civic education advocates and proposals proliferate this book treats civic education not as panacea but as a concrete policy area to be analyzed and understood It contextualizes the current debate and offers a critical assessment of the most recent comprehensive state level civic education policy reform It argues that while questions linger about what type of civic inspired educational interventions remains most effective for whom where and why the implementation of such interventions are profoundly impacted by local actors and local politics and that future initiatives should take this dimension into consideration Citizenship

Curriculum in Asia and the Pacific David L. Grossman, Wing On Lee, Kerry J. Kennedy, 2008-08-31 Based on case studies of 11 societies in the world's most dynamic region this book signals a new direction of study at the intersection of citizenship education and the curriculum Following their successful volume Citizenship Education in Asia and the Pacific: Concepts and Issues published as No 14 in this series the editors widely regarded as leaders in the field in the Asia Pacific region have gone beyond broad citizenship education frameworks to examine the realities tensions and pressures that influence the formation of the citizenship curriculum Chapter authors from different societies have addressed two fundamental questions 1 how is citizenship education featured in the current curriculum reform agenda in terms of both policy contexts and values and 2 to what extent do the reforms in citizenship education reflect current debates within the society From comparative analysis of these 11 case studies the editors have found a complex picture of curriculum reform that indicates deep tensions between global and local agendas On one hand there is substantial evidence of an increasingly common policy rhetoric in the debates about citizenship education On the other it is evident that this discourse does not necessarily extend to citizenship curriculum which in most places continues to be constructed according to distinctive social political and cultural contexts Whether the focus is on Islamic values in Pakistan an emerging discourse about Chinese democracy a nostalgic conservatism in Australia or a continuing nation building project in Malaysia the cases show that distinctive social values and ideologies construct national citizenship curricula in Asian contexts even in this increasingly globalized era This impressive collection of case studies of a diverse group of societies informs and enriches understanding of the complex relationship between citizenship education and the curriculum both regionally and globally
