

ABOUT CODA

Initially the music which Erik de Vroomen composed for this album was meant as a SOUND-PROJECT, in co-operation with some session-musicians.

Then, when Erik had first worked together with several other musicians, with whom he made some demos, he made acquaintance with Mark Effken, Jacky van Tolboom and Jack Witjes. From both sides they were enthusiastic about this new cooperation, so much so, that it resulted in a unanimous decision to start working together more closely, at that time using the name "Erik de Vroomen & CODA".

After only six or seven short rehearsals Erik, Mark, Jacky and Jack went into the studio and made the recording for this album as well as some demo tracks for possible future uses. It was during these recordings that the foursome decided to continue as a permanent professional/symphonic rock formation. From that moment we speak of CODA.

ABOUT THIS ALBUM

The concept-album "Sounds of Passion", originally a solo-project, is a kind of daydream, a meditation. It can also be considered as an Apocalyptic Vision, painted in sound pictures. This is what the music wishes to express and the cover-illustration symbolizes. As the prologue to "Sounds of Passion" literally summarizes the intentions of this album, more words seem superfluous to me.

After "Sounds of Passion" arose in the spring 1981, it was by pure accident that I got in touch with two books by the well-known Czech-Austrian author Günther Schwab. These occasional works fascinated me enormously, particularly because they completely fitted my personal vision - expressed on this album - with relation to everything that takes place in this turbulent world. For this reason I have had some quotations from these books printed on the supplementary sheet by kind permission of Günther Schwab himself. Of course, these quotations, severed from their context, must remain fragmentary, but will hopefully refer the reader to their source. This will also lead to a deeper understanding of what this album means to convey. The way in which Günther Schwab co-operated with this album by means of these quotations deserves my deepest gratitude.

there has never been a single one written from the point of view of a woman The Passion and the Glory The Greatest Love Story Ever Lived is the first Gospel written from the point of view of a woman furthermore it is the only one written from the perspective of the woman who loved Jesus passionately as a God and as a Man Mary of Magdala It is the Gospel of Mary of Magdala A Gospel for the new Century The Passion and the Glory The Greatest Love Story Ever Lived offers to the reader the most complete account of the life of Jesus the Christ that has ever been written in the history of Christianity That is it includes in it witnesses accounts of His birth miracles and stories of His Infancy the occult or lost years His mission passion and death and the rarely found mystery teachings of the Christ Jesus to His apostles after His Resurrection these although known to Theologians have only been disclosed in some rare and hard to find Apocryphal Gospels The Gospel of Mary Magdala is illuminating human intriguing and interesting because it gives us dimensions unknown to most of us of the humanity and divinity of Jesus the Christ dimensions that only the woman who loved Him experienced and can help us to know Him better At the same time it also gives to us dimensions of our humanity and our unconscious quest to recuperate our forgotten divine status Mary of Magdala is an integral part of us the fallen humanity Her fall and her redemption are both irrevocably tied to our fallen human nature and to our hopes for redemption when we read her story we are able to understand our human selves our relationship with Jesus the Christ and our divine potentials subjectively It is as if her love affair with the Christ is our own love affair with His Spirit and her rise from sin into sainthood the hope for our own future divinization As we penetrate it The Passion and The Glory The Greatest Story Ever Lived becomes our own story We learn more about Jesus His Love for us and are exposed to His Mystery teachings a priceless treasure of wisdom which is not only liberating but helps to fuel in us the innate desire to discover and recuperate our true divine nature The Gospel of Mary Magdalene is indeed a revolutionary Gospel of Love for the new minds and spirits of the Twenty first Century The Passion and The Glory The Greatest Love Story Ever Lived is a Gospel that was rejected in the past mainly because it came from a woman Things have changed what makes it most valuable in the new century is precisely that it comes from a woman A woman who was not only one of Jesus closest disciples and His most intimate companion but the one He chose to make an apostle to His apostles by making her the sole harbinger of His resurrection In an age when women don t have to bend anymore under the dark cloud of male chauvinism the Gospel of Mary Magdalene the woman who loved Jesus is more than welcome The fact that her vision of Jesus is that of a woman makes her Gospel a great love story passionate deeper and more human very different indeed from that of the male apostles Mary of Magdala lived with Jesus Christ by and through His Grace The Greatest Story of Love Ever Lived Thus it is her Gospel
