Sounds Of Excellence:

Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization),1989 Principles of Speech and Dictionary of Sounds Alexander Melville Bell,1916 The Perfection Trap Thomas Curran,2024-05-07 A highly regarded professor of psychology at the London School of Economics sharing contemporary evidence explores how the pursuit of perfection can lead to burnout and depression and shows what we can do to resist the modern day pressure to be perfect to led a more purposeful and contented life Philodemus, On Poems, Books 3-4 Richard Janko,2010-12-23 The On Poems by the Epicurean philosopher and poet Philodemus of Gadara 1st century BC survived amid the library of the Villa of the Papyri at Herculaneum which was buried by the eruption of Vesuvius in AD 79 The papyrus rolls in this the only library that survives from the ancient world are with the aid of advanced technology at last able to be read reconstructed and translated The On Poems in five books offers unique insights into ancient literary criticism from Aristotle to Horace Book 1 was published in 2000 This volume contains the Greek text translation and scholarly commentary on Books 3 and 4 together with the fragments of Aristotle s lost dialogue On Poets which sheds light on Aristotle s views on such controversial questions as mimesis catharsis and the origins of tragedy and comedy Boot and Shoe Recorder ,1921 Making Sense of Recordings Mads Walther-Hansen,2020-09-14 The literature dealing with the auditory impact of studio based practices and technologies on the listening experience is scattered and mainly comprises specialized articles inaccessible to most audio professionals and students Making Sense of Recordings addresses this problem by offering a comprehensive account of sound quality in recorded music The book presents analytical tools to evaluate recorded sound and describes how the listening experience is reflected often metaphorically in language Film Sound in Italy A. Sisto,2014-03-13 A critical engagement with cinema in Italy this book examines the national archive of film based on sound and listening using a holistic audio visual approach Sisto shifts the sensory paradigm of film history and analysis from the optical to the sonic demonstrating how this translates into a shift of canonical narratives and interpretations Sound and Communication Annette Wilke,Oliver Moebus,2011-01-28 In Hindu India both orality and sonality have enjoyed great cultural significance since earliest times They have a distinct influence on how people approach texts The importance of sound and its perception has led to rites models of cosmic order and abstract formulas Sound serves both to stimulate religious feelings and to give them a sensory form Starting from the perception and interpretation of sound the authors chart an unorthodox cultural history of India turning their attention to an important but often neglected aspect of daily religious life They provide a stimulating contribution to the study of cultural systems of perception that also adds new aspects to the debate on orality and literality The audio samples originally included to the book as a music CD can be downloaded from this website under Supplementary Materials Studies in the Lyric Poems of Friedrich Hebbel Albert Edward Gubelmann,1912 A Redemptive Theology of Art David A. Covington,2018-05-01 A Redemptive Theology of Art develops a biblical systematic and practical theology of aesthetics It begins with the roots and ontology of aesthetics vs art and the architecture and narrative of affection and passion their woes and their glory Those who would search the Bible find little support for art as commonly conceived in the West The language of aesthetics applied to the maker s intentions the qualities of the work and the responses of the audience better addresses the questions of beauty and better suits the discussion of human actions beliefs and culture than the language of art does The Bible yields more consistent and helpful answers to questions about the broader category of aesthetics than it does to questions about art leading in turn to better questions and a more practical and theological appreciation of human affections beauty and delight and the many paths by which people including Christians pursue them Using the categories and definitions from Scripture Covington gives hope and help not only for those who labor in the arts but for everyone who cares about the passions that motivate us We were made for God s delight and though sin and bondage plague our passions God can shape our fun feelings desires affections and aversions Feelings are neither objective nor subjective they are redeemable Borrowing key ideas from other Christian writers on the arts or aesthetics Covington explores the connection between orthodox Protestant theology and a responsible respectful treatment of arts artists and all aesthetic fields of human work and speech
