Delectable Italian Soups Recipes Allie Allen,2020-11-02 When you think of Italy what foods come to mind Do you think of pasta and pizza first What about Italian soups Although not as well known as their pasta pizza and sweet treats there are many recipes for soups that come from Italy They come from different regions of the country and they are sometimes served as a course between the starter and main dishes Italian soups are often filling and earthy and largely based on beans and vegetables Sometimes they also include bread or flour and meat fish or cheese Fish soups in particular are most popular in the coastal regions for obvious reasons The remainder of the soups is enjoyed more often during the cold months of Autumn and Winter The ingredients are typically related to the season in which the soups are served most often If you have been to Italy you ll know that meals are more than simply food They are works of art As with traditional art they should only be made with ingredients of the highest quality The authenticity of Italian soups comes from attention to detail

They prefer ingredients that are all natural and rich robust flavors uncomplicated by dyes or additives Using clean fresh ingredients their soups are a welcome addition to any meals Turn the page let s make soup
