tidal wave and finally being carried aloft by a big silver bird that landed me in the New York slab dab in the middle of the Civil Rights struggle It was a vast struggle then and remains so today though on a higher level as still a living breathing a phenomenon that in the 1960 s had elicited a mad rush of water to ooze from fire hoses manned by assiduous if not sadistic law and order protagonists that swept their fellow American brethren off their feet and tossed them several yards from the offending fray The Emigrants' Guide to South Africa ,1891 Includes information on Union Steam Ship Company s routes to South Africa Wheat bibliography from Southern Africa: Breeding, pathology and production -- Research and extension literature , U.S. Business Involvement in Southern Africa United States.
