South Asia In A Changing International Order:

South Asia in a Changing International Order Gowher Rizvi, 1993 India and Southeast Asia in a Changing World Shailza Singh, Philip Varghese, Shalini Balaiah, Sarish Sebastian, 2024-12-16 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of India's relationship with the Southeast Asian nations in the context of the changing dynamics of international relations and the emergence of Indo Pacific as the theatre of world politics. It covers a wide range of themes from strategic to political, economic, diplomatic and security aspects and assesses how India's redefining of its role in world politics unfolds through its posture towards the Southeast Asian region. The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Asian studies, both South Asian and Southeast Asian studies and politics and international relations. It will also be useful for public policy analysts and think tanks and policymakers.

Southeast Asia in the New World Order Bruce Burton, David Wurfel, 2016-07-27 This multi-authored book looks at one of the most dynamic regions of the Third World within the context of the rapidly changing international system of the 1990s. Among the many themes it explores are ASEAN's new political roles and new modes of economic cooperation, the growing importance of ecological and human rights issues, the policies of the major external powers towards the region, the Cambodian and Spratly conflicts and the relevance of Southeast Asian experience in the New World Order to the ongoing theoretical debates about democracy, the market, the state and multilateralism.

The New Political Economy of Southeast Asia Rajah Rasiah, Johannes Dragsbaek Schmidt, 2010-01-01 This well-researched book examines the dramatic transformation of Southeast Asian countries from agricultural and mining economies to industrial nations. In doing so, it explores the effects of development policy on a number of interdisciplinary issues and the emergence of new social and political pressures created by industrialization. These include their heightened vulnerability to complex economic crises, their use of sophisticated instruments in the labour process and increased awareness of environmental issues. The distinguished authors present a regional and cross-border focus on transnational actors and institutions and the policy issues and problems which have a wider impact on spatial configurations in the region. This insightful study will appeal to researchers, academics and policymakers working on the economics and development of Southeast Asia.

The Changing Global Order Madeleine O. Hosli, Joren Selleslaghs, 2019-11-22 This volume offers a comprehensive evaluation of the concept of global order with a particular emphasis on the role of regional organisations within global governance institutions such as the United Nations. Building from a solid theoretical base, it draws upon the expertise of numerous leading international scholars offering a broad array of timely and relevant case studies. These all take into consideration the historical setting before analysing the contemporary situation and offering suggestions for potential realignments and readjustments that may be witnessed in the future. The volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach when addressing some of the most pressing issues of global governance which our global community must tackle. This presents the readers an opportunity to understand related topics such as political economy, international law, institutions of global governance in conjunction with the academic field of International Relations IR It further helps students and interested readers understand the theoretical and practical foundations to the changing nature of global affairs Nuclear

Deterrence in Southern Asia Arpit Rajain, 2005-05 This important and topical book examines the triangular relationship of China India and Pakistan through the prism of nuclear deterrence The author highlights the interplay and role of strategic culture nuclear weaponisation and deployment command and control arms control non state actors and foreign policy issues which affect relations between the three countries With two main purposes a conceptual investigation into the notion of deterrence and a study of the theory and practice of limited war this book addresses the strategic political and military dimensions of the role of nuclear weapons through examples of the only cases of nuclear weapon states having gone into armed conflict the Cuban missile crisis the Ussuri river clashes and the Kargil conflict discusses the various pressures exerted on decision makers in the context of the notions of deterrence the rational deterrence model and a limited war under a nuclear umbrella evaluates all three countries with regard to their strategic culture the role of nuclear weapons in their military strategy the nature of public opinion and political rhetoric responses to the various arms control treaties and foreign policy choices Based on a variety of sources including interviews with key individuals in various sector this is the first book length study of the triangular relationship between China India and Pakistan The New International Politics of South Asia

Vernon Hewitt, 1997-09-15 Revised and substantially updated The new international politics of South Asia argues that the politics of the individual states of South Asia cannot be understood without reference to the regional and international context The author emphasises the need to consider rapid political social and economic change in the context of debates over ethnic identity and changes within the international system following the collapse of the Soviet Union Recent changes have opened up new opportunities for the region but have also exposed specific weaknesses The author discusses India s evolving relationship with the international economic system economic reforms in Pakistan and Sri Lanka as well as key issues such as the regional position on the NPT treaty the Comprehensive Test Ban treaty environmental issues and the post Cold War world order The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger, 2004 This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia s development India's National Security Dilemma Rajpal Budania, 2001 The Making of Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2013-02-15 Developing a framework to study what makes a region Amitav Acharya investigates the origins and evolution of Southeast Asian regionalism and international relations He views the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN from the bottom up as not only a U S inspired ally in the Cold War struggle against communism but also an organization that reflects indigenous traditions Although Acharya deploys the notion of imagined community to examine the changes especially since the Cold War in the significance of ASEAN dealings for a regional identity he insists that imagination is itself not a neutral but rather a culturally variable concept The regional imagination in Southeast Asia imagines a community of nations different from NAFTA or NATO the OAU or the European Union In this new edition of a book first published as The Quest for Identity in 2000 Acharya updates developments in the region through the first decade of the new century the aftermath of the financial crisis of 1997 security affairs after September 2001 the long term impact of the 2004 tsunami and the substantial changes wrought by the rise of China as a regional and global actor Acharya argues in this important book for the crucial importance of regionalism in a different part of the world
