South Since Appomattox A Century Of Regi:

The Register of the Kentucky Historical Society Kentucky Historical Society, 2008 Earl K. Long Michael L. Kurtz, Morgan D. Peoples, 1991-12-01 In a region famous for its flamboyant politicians Earl K Long was one of the most flamboyant of them all This first full scale biography of the former Louisiana governor explores his controversial life style and his strong family ties his raw humor and his political savvy his abuse of power and his accomplishments in the areas of civil rights and public services Michael L Kurtz and Morgan D Peoples provide new information from recently declassified FBI files concerning Earl s ties with organized crime figures give the first comprehensive account of his stays in mental institutions in 1959 and offer factual information about his notorious relationship with the stripper Blaze Star Based on more than two decades of research in a variety of sources this important biography fills a serious gap in the history of modern Louisiana politics In a Madhouse's Din Susan M. Weill, 2002-03-30 Mississippi is a unique case study as a result of its long standing defiance of federal civil rights legislation and the fact that nearly half its population was black and relegated to second class citizenship According to the vast majority of Mississippi daily press editorials examined between 1948 and 1968 the notion that blacks and whites were equal as races of people was a concept that remained unacceptable and inconceivable While the daily press certainly did not advocate desegregation in contrast to what many media critics have reported about the Southern press promoting violence to suppress civil rights activity Mississippi daily newspapers never encouraged or condoned violence during the time periods under evaluation Weill places coverage of these important events within a historical context shedding new light on media opinion in the state most resistant to the precepts of the civil rights movement This is the first comprehensive examination of civil rights coverage and white supremacist rhetoric in the Mississippi daily press during five key events the 1948 Dixiecrat protest of the national Democratic platform the Brown v Board of Education Supreme Court decision to desegregate public schools in 1954 the court ordered desegregation of Ole Miss in 1962 Freedom Summer in 1964 and the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr in 1968 From nearly 5 000 issues of Mississippi daily newspapers more than 1 000 editorials and 7 000 news articles are documented in this volume Forts Henry and Donelson: The Key to the Confederate Heartland Benjamin Franklin Cooling, 1989 The National Register of Historic Places, 1972 The National Register of Historic Places, 1972 ,1973 We Shall Overcome Alexander Tsesis, 2008-10-01 Despite America s commitment to civil rights from the earliest days of nationhood examples of injustices against minorities stain many pages of U S history The battle for racial ethnic and gender fairness remains unfinished This comprehensive book traces the history of legal efforts to achieve civil rights for all Americans beginning with the years leading up to the Revolution and continuing to our own times The historical adventure Alexander Tsesis recounts is filled with fascinating events with real change and disappointing compromise and with courageous individuals and organizations committed to ending injustice Viewing the evolution of civil rights through the lens of legal history Tsesis considers laws that have restricted civil rights such as Jim Crow regulations and prohibitions against intermarriage and laws that have expanded rights including antisegregation legislation and other legal advances of the civil rights era He focuses particular attention on the African American fight for civil rights but also discusses the struggles of women gays and lesbians Japanese Americans Latinos Native Americans and Jews He concludes by assessing the current state of civil rights in the United States and exploring likely future expansions of civil rights The American Historical Register Charles Henry Browning,1895
