South Africa Commissioneer On Native Grievances Inquiry:

Report of the Native Grievances Inquiry, 1913-1914 ... South Africa. Commissioner on Native Grievances Inquiry, 1914 The Foundations of the South African Cheap Labour System Norman Levy, 2022-10-05 Originally published in 1982 this was the first in depth study of the labour system of the South African gold mining industry during the crucial years 1886 to 1906 It provided an insight into the early period but was relevant for much longer as many of the policies decided upon in the formative years of the industry persisted The book traces the growth of deep level mining and covers the conflicts between miners and mine owners It discusses the effects on the gold mining industry of the Anglo Boer War and the role of the mine owners in that conflict It also examines the role of Chinese labour as a strategy in the defence of the labour structure and finally discusses the origins of the racially discriminatory legislation which characterized the Apartheid system Migrant Labour in South Africa's Mining Economy Alan H. Jeeves, 1985-06-01 In tracing the development of the recruiting system Alan Jeeves shows how a large proportion of the labour supply came to be controlled by private labour companies and recruiting agents who aimed both to exploit the workers and to extract heavy fees from the employing companies The gold industry struggled for years against the internal divisions which created the competition for labour until at last the Chamber of Mines with the support of the state succeeded in driving out the private recruiters and centralizing the system under its control This study of the interests involved in the struggle for control of the black labour supply reveals much about the forces which created and now entrench racial domination in South African s industrial economy The ANC's Early Years Peter Limb, 2024-12-02 The African National Congress ANC is the oldest and most durable of African nationalist movements not only in South Africa but also across the continent Since 1994 it has governed the country as leader of the Tripartite Alliance with the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu and South African Communist Party SACP The early decades of the twentieth century saw the establishment survival and growth of ANC and black labour organisations This book focuses on the formative period of engagement of these political and socioeconomic forces before permanent alliances emerged It analyses the ANC s attitudes and relationships with the nascent formations of the black working class with particular attention to the most conscious and active workers The subject matter in this book also discusses migrant rural domestic and women workers not always then clearly defined as part of a formal working class Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge s co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges Catalog of the Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library (Evanston, Illinois) and Africana in Selected Libraries Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, 1972 Struggle for Swazi Labour, 1890-1920 Jonathan Crush, 1987-11-01 Although the results of colonial expansion have been described in other general studies of the region this is the first book to take a close look at the case of the Swazi in Swaziland Jonathan Crush shows that while the Swazi experienced many of the classic problems of underdevelopment there were also a number of significant differences For example traditional relationships between chiefs and commoners showed much greater resilience than elsewhere This considerably affected the pace and nature of Swaziland's incorporation into South Africa's notorious migrant labour system As well because of the country's proximity to a number of alternative labour markets the Swazi had a greater choice of employment than did many other groups in the region Crush shows how the Swazi were able to use the system to their own advantage and how this helped shape the patterns of early Swazi migrancy The Struggle for Swazi Labour examines the changing nature of the Swazi migrant labour force the spatial patterns and temporal rhythms of migration and the emergence of the Witwatersrand as the dominant though by no means exclusive employer of Swazi labour It also shows how the local history of white settlement and land alienation influenced the manner in which the Swazi were subordinated to foreign economic and political control The book fills an important gap in the history of Swaziland and in the economic history of the south African region as a whole It will be helpful to anyone wishing to understand the pre-eminence of traditional personalities and institutions in contemporary Swaziland and to those seeking an explanation for South African economic domination of the surrounding countries Its comparative perspective makes it valuable to a wide range of scholars with interests in the social and economic development of southern Africa as well as to labour and social historians rural economists and economic geographers Joint Acquisitions List of Africana, 1973

The Making of South African Legal Culture 1902-1936 Martin Chanock, 2001-03-05 Martin Chanock's illuminating and definitive perspective on that development examines all areas of the law including criminal law and criminology the Roman Dutch law the State's African law and land labour and rule of law questions Annual Report by the Commissioner for Native Affairs for the Year Ended 30th June ... Transvaal (Colony). Native Affairs Department, 1910 War and Society: Participation and Remembrance Albert Grundlingh, 2014-12-01 The centenary of the First World War presents historians with an opportunity to reflect anew upon South African participation in that war and particularly the role played by South African black and coloured participants in the conflict Drawing upon a wide range of sources the author analyses the interplay between war and society the expectations of different groupings at the outbreak of war the concerns and constraints which circumscribed the role of black and coloured troops the nature of the recruiting process and the reasons why men enlisted the realities of service in what was South West Africa and East Africa as well as in France and Palestine and the socio-political ramifications of war service
