South American Consumer Protection Laws:

Guidelines to South American Consumer Protection Laws David B. Jaffe, Robert G. Vaughn, 1996-02-22 Since 1990 a number of South American countries have either enacted or are in the process of adopting consumer protection statutory provisions These statutes emphasize consumer transactional law including regulation of the terms of contracts relating to credit and other sales contracts In addition these provisions address consumer access to information product warranties and redress for injuries caused by defective products Of particular interest to foreign businesses are the provisions extending these standards to foreign manufacturers and exporters This book provides both a country by country commentary on consumer protection provisions as well as the actual statutes in their original language accompanied by a side by English translation South American Consumer Protection Laws is an essential resource for all lawyers business executives and consumer affairs consultants who are currently doing business in or planning to export products to South American countries

Consumer Protection in Asia Geraint Howells, Hans-W. Micklitz, Mateja Durovic, André Janssen, 2022-08-25 This book looks at the consumer protection offered in a range of Asian countries for example China Japan and South Korea in key areas such as consumer sales law unfair terms product liability and unfair commercial practices However it is interesting to note that consumer protection is on the rise everywhere and to compare how this differs depending upon the legal cultures It is also fascinating to reflect on the influence of models for law reform such as the EU laws ASEAN has also affected the development of consumer policy for its member states The book takes the form of national reports which explain the development of the law and also shed light on how the law works in practice The book also contains thematic reports which look at each area of the law from a comparative perspective Commentators from around the globe reflect on their impression of Asian consumer law based on their own differing legal systems and benchmarks A must read for anyone with an interest in consumer law in Asia and beyond this book will form the basis of further research and discussion internationally

Internationalization of Consumer Law Mateja Durovic, Hans W. Micklitz, 2016-11-11 This book examines the institutions that are producing consumer law at the international level the substantive issues enshrined in these laws and the enforcement mechanisms meant to ensure effective protection The majority of existing research is devoted to the comparative perspective between countries or between the US and the EU This book investigates the forceful activities of international and regional organizations and shifts the focus of research to the internationalization of consumer law which is largely neglected in particular in the Western centered political and legal debate Much of what constitutes consumer law today is focused on banking and finance and more broadly the financialization and digitalization of the global economy and society has created a shift in international consumer law production This book investigates the role that international organizations have on the creation and enforcement of consumer law and will be of interest to consumer lawyers practitioners and officials in organizations such as the United Nations European Union and World Bank The Future of

Contract Law in Latin America Rodrigo Momberg, Stefan Vogenauer, 2017-09-21 This book presents analyses and evaluates the Principles of Latin American Contract Law PLACL a recent set of provisions aiming at the harmonisation of contract law at a regional level As such the PLACL are the most recent exponent of the many proposals for transnational sets of principles of contract law that were drafted or published over the past 20 years either at the global or the regional level These include the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts the Principles of European Contract Law the European Draft Common Frame of Reference and the Principles of Asian Contract Law The PLACL are the product of a working group comprising legal academics from Argentina Brazil Colombia Chile Paraguay Uruguay and Venezuela The 111 articles of the instrument deal with problems of general contract law such as formation interpretation and performance of contracts as well as remedies for breach The book aims to introduce the PLACL to an international audience by putting them in their historical and comparative context including other transnational harmonisation measures and initiatives The contributions are authored by drafters of the PLACL and contract law experts from Europe and Latin America

Handbook of Research on International Consumer Law, Second Edition Geraint Howells, Iain Ramsay, 2018-07-27 Consumer law and policy continues to be of great concern to both national and international regulatory bodies and the second edition of the Handbook of Research on International Consumer Law provides an updated international and comparative analysis of the central legal and policy issues in both developed and developing economies

Watchdogs and Whistleblowers Stephen Brobeck, Robert N. Mayer, 2015-07-20 This book is the most comprehensive and up to date source of information about ways in which consumer activism has reshaped the economic and political well being of citizens in the United States and around the world This all encompassing collection of information about consumer activism and the consumer movement will provide students public officials business groups and other activists with a one stop source of facts and insights The contributors explore hundreds of major consumer protections that have significantly enhanced the quality of life and safety for all Americans showing how these protections were won through the skillful and determined work of leading activists and activist organizations Many of the stories told here are related by the activists themselves often for the first time More than 140 entries offer a comprehensive treatment of the consumer activism of specific organizations their leaders and strategies The book also includes more than 40 entries about consumer movements in Europe Asia Africa and Latin America A timeline of key events and a listing of the most important books on the subject of consumer activism help provide context for the individual entries as do two introductory essays Cross references in each entry establish linkages among topics

China's Influence on Non-Trade Concerns in International Economic Law Paolo Farah,Elena Cima,2016-10-14 This volume examines the range of Non Trade Concerns NTCs that may conflict with international economic rules and proposes ways to protect them within international law and international economic law Globalization without local concerns can endanger relevant issues such as good governance human rights right to water right to food social economic cultural and environmental rights labor rights access to knowledge public health social welfare consumer interests and animal welfare climate change energy environmental protection and sustainable development product safety food safety and security Focusing on China the book shows the current trends of Chinese law and policy towards international standards The authors argue that China can play a leading role in this context not only has China adopted several reforms and new regulations to address NTCs but it has started to play a very relevant role in international negotiations on NTCs such as climate change energy and culture among others While China is still considered a developing country in particular from the NTCs point of view it promises to be a key actor in international law in general and more specifically in international economic law in this respect This volume assesses taking into consideration its special context China s behavior internally and externally to understand its role and influence in shaping NTCs in the context of international economic law

The Transformation of Consumer Law and Policy in Europe Hans-W. Micklitz,Christian Twigg-Flesner,2023-12-14 This book analyses the transformation of consumer law and policy in Europe from 4 perspectives first the temporal transformation i e changes that can be tracked from the turn of the millennium secondly the substantive dimension i e changes in the scope of the rights and remedies provided by consumer law as well as the underpinning values thirdly the institutional dimension i e changes in the role of national courts national Parliaments consumer agencies and consumer organisations and fourth the procedural element i e the shift from individual enforcement via courts to enforcement by public regulators consumer associations alternative dispute resolution and the development of collective enforcement exercised by consumer agencies and or consumer organisations With contributions by leading consumer law scholars from across Europe this book is a fascinating account of how consumer law has often been shaped by national as much as European interests
