Southern California Freeways California:

The State Highways of California Automobile Club of Southern California, California State Automobile Association, 1921 California Before the Freeways Kenneth E. Bingham, 2013-05 California Before the Freeways A Pictorial History of California's Highways 1912-1919 A 214 page picture rich book showing people and automobiles along highways byways and wood plank roads in California between 1912-1919 Pictures shows bygone tourist routes vistas antique cars dirt and desert wood plank roadways old cities and towns and the people instrumental in getting California's highways built over Hill and DALE The State Highway Commission overcoming its great native modesty called attention to the fact that it was at present financially embarrassed and that unless some extraordinary legislation was developed it would be tee totally busted before funds could be derived from the proposed bond issue which under existing laws could not be voted upon before the fall of 1920 at the general election a lapse of time which might just as well be a century so far as present pecuniary needs were concerned And then arose a Moses with his rod and smote the rock and funds poured forth Attorney General Webb was the man who finally evolved the plan of amending the constitution of California to provide a further sum of 40 000 000 for State Highway construction by the sale of bonds the one election serving the double purpose of amending the constitution of the state of California and providing 40 000 000 for more roads Immediately upon the setting of July 1 as the date for the election the California Good Roads Campaign Committee was formed with L A Nares of Fresno as chairman the vice chairmen being Francis Carr of Redding and Henry W Keller of Los Angeles while joint secretaries were named as follows D E Watkins manager California State Automobile Association San Francisco John F Shea secretary Northern California Hotel Men's Association E W Casson secretary Southern California Hotel Men's Association and Standish L Mitchell secretary Automobile Club of Southern California This book is based on the wonderful and classic out of print book California Highways by Ben Blow 1920 California's Freeway Era in Historical Perspective David W. Jones, 1989 Freewaytopia: How Freeways Shaped Los Angeles Paul Haddad, 2021-10-05 Freewaytopia How Freeways Shaped Los Angeles explores how social economic political and cultural demands created the web of expressways whose very form futuristic majestic and progressive perfectly exemplifies the City of Angels From the Arroyo Seco which began construction during the Great Depression to the Simi Valley and Century Freeways which were completed in 1993 author Paul Haddad provides an entertaining and engaging history of the 527 miles of road that comprise the Los Angeles freeway system Each of Los Angeles's twelve freeways receives its own chapter and these are supplemented by Off Ramps sidebars that dish out pithy factoids about Botts Dots SigAlerts and all matter of freeway lexicon such as why Southern Californians are the only people in the country who place the word the in front of their interstates as in the 5 or the 101 Freewaytopia also explores those routes that never saw the light of day Imagine superhighways burrowing through Laurel Canyon tunneling under the Hollywood Sign or spanning the waters of Santa Monica Bay With a few more legislative strokes of the pen you wouldn't have to imagine them they d already exist Haddad notably gives voice to those individuals whose lives were inextricably connected for better or worse to the city s freeways The hundreds of thousands of mostly minority and lower class residents who protested against their displacement as a result of eminent domain Women engineers who excelled in a man s field Elected officials who helped further freeways or stop them dead in their tracks And he pays tribute to the corps of civic and state highway employees whose collective vision expertise and dedication created not just the most famous freeway network in the world but feats of engineering that at their best achieve architectural poetry Finally let s not forget the beauty queens no freeway in Los Angeles ever opened without their royal presence Fodor's 2007 Southern California Carissa
