Southern Cameroons 1922 1961 A Constitutional History Contemporary Perspectives On Developing Societies S:

Constitutionalism and Society in Africa Okon Akiba, 2017-03-02 The issues addressed in this rewarding book provide new insight into the way we conceive reflect and study the problems of political transformation and constitution making in Africa. The study provides a refreshingly in depth analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of constitutional provisions for managing the challenges of race religion ethnicity citizenship civil liberties and civil military relations in Africa's transitional democracies. Tracing emerging trends in constitution making it blends the theory of constitutional democracy with case studies and defines the imperative of social justice. Devolution and Development Mwangi S. Kimenyi, 2018-01-18 Through a collection of unique case studies and theoretical analyses this work examines the genesis and impact of decentralization reforms in developing and transition countries. In particular the volume shows how decentralization affects governance and efficiency in the provision of public goods and under what conditions decentralization seems to deliver its theoretical benefits. Analyses in the book address current concerns about the interaction of decentralization with social and political structure resource mobilization public goods provision and corruption. This work will be invaluable to scholars of politics development studies and regional studies. Revival: Ethnicity and Governance in the Third World (2001) Pita Ogaba

Agbese, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001. Written by an outstanding international group of researchers focusing on ethnic conflict this refreshing analysis provides practical and effective policy options for the people of the Third World. Dilemmas of Weak States Tatah Mentan, 2004 Tatah Mentan examines the weak state terrorism nexus with particular emphasis on Africa. Specifically the book provides an in depth analysis of state weakness poverty and the opportunities offered by the latter for the breeding of terrorism and terrorists. It also looks at the part played by radical Islam in transnational terrorism in Africa. Agenda Setting and Public Policy in Africa Kelechi A. Kalu, 2017-03-02 Agenda Setting and Public Policy in Africa examines how decision makers have managed and mismanaged public policy issues in sub Saharan Africa. It analyses the neglected issue of how ideas about public policy are generated by whom and for what purpose. Persistent problems such as political instability environmental pollution famine hunger desertification rent seeking and incessant intra conflicts across the continent are explored in a systematic and structured manner. Each contributor proffers convincing solutions to clearly identified problems. Well researched and solution orientated this book will engage scholars and policy makers who are interested in public policy and development issues in Africa. West Africa ,2001 Southern Cameroons, 1922-1961 Victor Julius Ngoh, 2001 An original and unique examination of the constitutional history of British Southern Cameroons from 1922 to 1961 this book provides a concrete foundation for understanding the origin of the Anglophone Question in present day Cameroon. The work is the result of extensive research at the Public Records Office London the National Archives in Yaound and Buea and of interviews with many key Cameroonian players in the constitutional development of the territory. Restarting and Sustaining Economic Growth and Development in Africa Mwangi S.

Kimenyi, John Mukum Mbaku, Ngure Mwaniki, 2003 A refreshing rigorous informative and multidisciplinary analysis of economic growth and poverty alleviation in Africa with special reference to Kenya Neoliberal Bandwagonism. Civil society and the politics of belonging in Anglophone Cameroon Piet Konings, 2009 While neoliberals typically view civil society organizations as vital channels for the implementation of economic and political reforms they are also inclined to blame the politics of belonging for the poor record of these reforms Piet Konings rejects such notions and argues that the relationship between civil society and the politics of belonging is more complex in Africa than Western donors and scholars are inclined to admit He argues that ethno regional associations and movements are more significant constituents of civil society in Africa than the conventional organizations that are often uncritically imposed or endorsed He shows how the politics of belonging so pervasive in Cameroon and indeed much of Africa during the current neoliberal economic and political reforms has tended to penetrate the entire range of associational life and he calls for a critical re appraisal of prevalent notions and assumptions about civil society in the interest of African reality The Military and Politics in Africa George Klay Kieh, Pita Ogaba Agbese, 2004 Unlike other publications on the military and politics in Africa which focus on one or two aspects of the involvement of the military in African politics this text provides a comprehensive evaluation of the various aspects of military intervention Such a collection provides useful insights into the military's role in African politics from initial intervention to the performance of military regimes as well as to disengagement reengagement consolidation and finally the offering of ways to control the problem of intervention
