Southern Africa In World Politics Local Aspirations And Global Entanglements:

SOUTHERN AFRICA IN WORLD POLITICS JANICE. LOVE, 2019-06-14 Southern Africa in World Politics Janice Love, 2005-02-11 Examines how the interplay of local regional and global actors and arenas shape the lives of the people and nations of southern Africa Southern Africa in World Politics Janice Love, 2018-03-09 These days politics often seem to be local and global simultaneously challenging people politicians and scholars to sort out what is domestic from what is international and how the two are related Janice Love demonstrates the complex realities of how local and global politics are intimately interwoven sometimes inextricably so specifically in southern Africa In southern Africa like many other regions such linkages have existed for decades if not centuries Yet the current era is different from previous times when human communities found themselves closely intertwined Love examines military political and economic changes in recent decades Students of international relations comparative politics and African studies will find the region s experience instructive in understanding larger trends in the world Students particularly interested in Africa will gain insight not only about this region but also its significance for the whole continent Deliberately crosses the boundaries of domestic politics and foreign policy as well as comparative politics and international relations By taking a globalization approach connecting the local regional and global the book offers fresh insights into the dynamics of war and peace wealth and poverty as well as local to global governance in southern Africa Examines globalization in three arenas or domains military political and economic not only distinguishing them from each other but also probing what has changed and what has remained the same across time

Africa in Global Politics in the Twenty-First Century Olayiwola Abegunrin, 2009-11-18 In the twenty first century Africa has become an important source of US energy imports and the world s natural resources It has also become the epicentre of the world s deadly health epidemic HIV AIDS and one of the battlegrounds in the fight against terrorism Africa is now a major player in global affairs State-Business Relations and Economic Transformation in South Africa and Zimbabwe Sinan Baran, 2023-06-12 In State Business Relations and Economic Transformation in South Africa and Zimbabwe Unfinished Transformation Sinan Baran examines state business relations SBRs in semi peripheral South Africa and peripheral Zimbabwe after each country s transition to majority rule to address why SBRs are likely to either consolidate or fracture in post transition communities In both countries the majority governments faced unresolved post transition divisions relating to race inequality and underdevelopment Baran analyzes the liberalisation and indigenisation policy choices intended to address these areas that are impacting the mining industries in South Africa and Zimbabwe as case studies Using comparative analysis and a Modern World Systems lens he argues that semi peripheral countries are less susceptible to pressures from domestic and external powers than peripheral countries during periods of economic transformation He further argues that China s significant political and economic presence in a peripheral country like Zimbabwe has more effect on SBRs than in a semi peripheral country like South Africa Africa's Development Impasse Doctor Stefan

Andreasson,2013-07-04 Orthodox strategies for socio economic development have failed spectacularly in Southern Africa Neither the developmental state nor neoliberal reform seems able to provide a solution to Africa s problems In Africa s Development Impasse Stefan Andreasson analyses this failure and explores the potential for post development alternatives Examining the post independence trajectories of Botswana Zimbabwe and South Africa the book shows three different examples of this failure to overcome a debilitating colonial legacy Andreasson then argues that it is now time to resuscitate post development theory s challenge to conventional development In doing this he claims we face the enormous challenge of translating post development into actual politics for a socially and politically sustainable future and using it as a dialogue about what the aims and aspirations of post colonial societies might become This important fusion of theory with empirical case studies will be essential reading for students of development politics and Africa and source of foreign direct investment This monograph seeks to understand the dynamics of the escalating Chinese investments in African economies and the political implications of this development for Africa This work will interest scholars students academics and policy makers on the fields of Chinese and African politics development studies and international political economy Law, Religion and Leadership in Africa F. Sibanda, E. Chitando, E.G. Konyana, B.P. Humbe, 2025-05-16 In Africa some heads of state sometimes prefer to take their oath on the Bible or the Quran rather than on an ancestral law or a fearsome fetish capable of causing misery in the event of a violation Thus in order to build credible institutions that can guarantee socio political and economic stability it is desirable to resort to certain ancestral practices in particular strict respect for customs At this level of our reflection it seems useless for Africans to reinvent the wheel rather we must look in the rearview mirror in order to exalt the pre colonial instruments capable of unravelling the invisible mystery of these societies In this same dynamic the ancestral law because of its historical and charismatic legitimacy imposes strict respect for the cosmic order Komo Guy Roland Kossonou Assistant Professor Legal Administrative and Management Sciences Training and Research Unit UFR SJAG Alassane Ouattara University Bouaké Côte d'Ivoire There is no way the church leadership can ignore such issues which affect their people daily and only talk about the future kingdom to come Both the sacred and the secular kingdoms are important matters in the life of people in every community hence religious and political leaders should strive to resolve their conflicts because people look up to them for spiritual and political leadership When political leaders tell religious leaders to stick to preaching the gospel and not involve themselves in the political affairs of the country it silences the church's ability to speak for the poor Upendo Mwakasenga Ordained minister United Church of Zambia Doctoral student in systematic theology University of Kwa Zulu Natal Even today religious cultural beliefs inform the way the youths are viewed within Zimbabwe's political circles Such beliefs infantilize young people and disempower them from effective political participation In most cases this role is postponed into the future The existing political structures and regimes exploit youth to expend their energies as political and military foot soldiers for the political elite but they are not being mentored to be prepared for positions of leadership It therefore becomes crucial to question the maxim the future is young which seems to procrastinate youth political leadership in Zimbabwe Molly Manyonganise Senior Lecturer Department of Religious Studies and Philosophy Zimbabwe Open University Ultimately God provides and heals but the fisherman must still cast his net the farmer must still till the soil and the doctor must still administer medication It is no different in matters of governance military warfare or institution building Personal piety is inconsequential to the empirical workings of the world but it may weigh on the scales in the hereafter The Brotherhood's fatalism blinds them to the worldly instruments needed to govern a nation Study and experience in economic policy and statecraft cannot be replaced with saintly endeavours such as worship and charity Nabil Yasien Mohamed Lecturer in Islamic Studies Department of Religion and Theology University of the Western Cape
