Literature, Social Wisdom, and Global Justice Mark Bracher, 2022-05-30 This book responds to the pressing and increasingly recognized need to cultivate social wisdom for addressing major problems confronting humanity Connecting literary studies with some of the biggest questions confronted by researchers and students today the book provides a practical approach to thinking through and potentially solving global problems such as poverty inequality crime war racism classism environmental decline and climate change Bracher argues that solving such problems requires systems thinking and that literary study is an excellent way to develop the four key cognitive functions of which systems thinking is composed which are causal analysis prospection strategic planning social cognition and metacognition Drawing on evidence based learning theory as well as the latest research on systems thinking and its four cognitive functions the book provides a comprehensive and detailed explanation of how these advanced thinking skills can be developed through literary study illustrating the process with numerous examples from major works of literature In explaining the nature and importance of these thinking skills and the ability of literary study to develop them this book will be of value to literature teachers and students from introductory to advanced levels and to anyone looking to develop better problem solving and decision making skills

Comparative Criticism: Volume 10, Comedy, Irony, Parody E. S. Shaffer, 1989-11-09 Volume 10 dedicated to Comedy Irony Parody celebrates the first decade of Comparative Criticism in a light hearted vein Michael Silk opens with a wide ranging essay asserting the primacy of comedy and declaring its independence of tragedy T L S Sprigge explores philosophers who dared to write on laughter Schopenhauer and Bergson Bernard Harrison looks at the twentieth century's favourite comic novel Tristram Shandy in the light of Locke's views on the particular Peter Brand pursues the theatrical arts of disguises masking and gender swapping through Renaissance Europe from Ariosto to Shakespeare Jane H M Taylor traces the danse macabre in modern black humour Christine Brooke Rose distinguished novelist and critic reads from and comments on her own witty fictions Michael Wood describes how Lolita outwitted her seducer

Migration, Transnationalism, and Faith in Missiological Perspective Kirsteen Kim, Alexia Salvatierra, 2022-04-04 Los Angeles is a global crossroads of migrating communities that presents a case study of migration transnationalism and interfaith engagement with significant implications for thinking and practice in other global hubs This book weaves together contributions from internationally recognized scholars who were brought together for the 2020 Missiology Lectures at Fuller Theological Seminary They examine historical waves of migration European Protestant Asian Latino and Muslim into Southern California and use sociological missiological and theological methods to understand the experience of migration and its effects both on those who move and those who are already there The result shows how migrants are inspired and sustained by faith and spiritual resources how migration challenges faith communities about their identity and attitudes to others how faith communities in turn impact the migration landscape through immigrant integration and public advocacy and how migration forges new transnational and global ways of being in community and innovative religious movements The contributors put forward a mission theology of migration and suggest mission practices in response to the suffering caused by forced migration and the injustices of immigration systems
