Souvenir The:

Tourism and Souvenirs Jenny Cave, Lee Jolliffe, Tom Baum, 2013-07-04 Souvenirs are part of global and local travel and tourism in all corners of the world This book portrays souvenirs as expressions of culture and as triggers of cultural change The volume provides critique and theorisation of souvenirs of places people and experiences in the context of lives lived at the margins of society politics tourism flows and urbanisation Case studies in sustainable tourism illustrate dynamic ways that consumers and suppliers use souvenirs to respond to resist and re interpret global and local influences upon cultures across informal hybrid and formal economies

Souvenirs Michael Hitchcock, Ken Teague, 2019-09-16 This title was first published in 2000 Souvenirs broadly conceived are generally thought to be the material counterpart of travels events relationships and memories of all kinds The material items classed as souvenirs discussed in this text have memorial functions usually connected with the owner's travels But not all of the items are souvenirs of tourism they are also souvenirs of other past phenomena such as political events suffragettes colonial history India former artistic pre eminence Awaji Ningyo puppetry or former ways of life South American ceramic archaisms The authors do not necessarily focus on material souvenirs in their memorial function as prompters of memory They also use their case studies as starting points for the discussion of many interesting contemporary phenomena such as cottage industries for economic development in Mexico and Ainu as devices to invigorate or maintain artistic practices as emblems of cultural conformity Surrealists or as symbolic weapons in national and international political arguments A key focus of many of the chapters is the question of meaning what is the meaning of any particular souvenir or collection and for whom does it bear that meaning

Intimations of Nostalgia Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2021-11-05 Nostalgia a complex and multi layered emotion has gained interest since the turn of the century in both society and academic circles Written by an international group of scholars this volume investigates the relationship between nostalgia and contemporary social issues from a multidisciplinary perspective From history and political theory to marketing and media each chapter discusses the way nostalgia has been presented within a disciplinary context and shows how it has evolved over time as a topic of research Casting light on many recent changes in society and culture this is an important contribution to the study of nostalgia and emotions Encounters with the Ottoman Miniature Begüm Özden Firat,2015-08-20 The dominant form of Ottoman pictorial art until the eighteenth century miniatures have traditionally been studied as reflecting the socio historical contexts aesthetic concerns and artistic tastes of the era within which they were produced Begum Ozden Fyrat proposes instead a radical re reading of seventeenth and eighteenth century miniatures in the light of contemporary critical theory highlighting the viewer s encounter with the image Encounters with the Ottoman Miniature employs contemporary concepts such as the gaze frame framing reading and re reading drawing on thinkers such as Walter Benjamin Roland Barthes and Gilles Deleuze to establish the vibrant cultural agency of miniature paintings With analysis that illuminates both the social and political situations in which these miniatures were painted as well as emphasising the miniature s contemporary relevance Firat presents an important new re imagining of this art form

Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1891 The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1889 Materializing Memory in Art and Popular Culture Laszlo Muntean,Liedeke Plate,Anneke Smelik,2016-12-08 Memory matters It matters because memory brings the past into the present and opens it up to the future But it also matters literally because memory is mediated materially Materiality is the stuff of memory Meaningful objects that we love or hate function not only as aide mmoire but are integral to memory Drawing on previous scholarship on the interrelation of memory and materiality this book applies recent theories of new materialism to explore the material dimension of memory in art and popular culture The book s underlying premise is twofold on the one hand memory is performed mediated and stored through the material world that surrounds us on the other hand inanimate objects and things also have agency on their own which affects practices of memory as well as forgetting Chapters 1 4 and 5 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 3 0 license Amateur Filmmaking Laura Rascaroli,Gwenda Young,Barry Monahan,2014-02-27 With the advent of digital filmmaking and critical recognition of the relevance of self expression first person narratives and personal practices of memorialization interest in the amateur moving image has never been stronger Bringing together key scholars in the field and revealing the rich variety of amateur filmmaking from home movies of Imperial India and film diaries of life in contemporary China to the work of leading auteurs such as Joseph Morder and P ter Forg cs Amateur Filmmaking highlights the importance of amateur cinema as a core object of critical interest across an array of disciplines With contributions on the role of the archive on YouTube and on the impact of new technologies on amateur filmmaking these essays offer the first comprehensive examination of this growing field Tourism Art and Souvenirs David

Hume,2013-10-01 This book examines the relationship between art and tourism through the study of the material culture of tourism tourist art and souvenirs It thoroughly examines how to categorise the material culture of tourism within the discourses of contemporary art and cultural anthropology and demonstrates that tourist art is a unique expression of place and genuine artistic style The first investigation to consider the activity of souvenirs from both indigenous and settler tourist sites it brings a unique addition to the existing dated research in the area Working initially from Graburn s definition of tourist art as the art of one culture made specifically for the consumption of another Tourism Art and Souvenirs sheds light on important aspects of the souvenir that have not been widely discussed The most recent research is used to consider how the souvenir is designed and consumed consumer expectations and influence on the character of the souvenir how the souvenir maker is consumed by the tradition of heritage and how products become successful as souvenirs The title also investigates the language involved in the representation of place and the recording of experience through the souvenir developing a method that expresses the descriptive data of individual souvenir artefacts graphically so the patterns of language may be analysed Enhancing the understanding of material culture in tourism and therefore adding to future tourism development this volume will be of interest to upper level students researchers and academics in tourism culture heritage and sustainability
