Exchanges between different cultures and institutions of learning have taken place for centuries but it was only in the twentieth century that such efforts evolved into formal programs that received focused attention from nation states, empires and international organizations. Global Exchanges provides a wide-ranging overview of this underresearched topic, examining the scope, scale and evolution of organized exchanges around the globe through the twentieth century. In doing so, it dramatically reveals the true extent of organized exchange and its essential contribution for knowledge transfer, cultural interchange and the formation of global networks so often taken for granted today. V.R. 76 ; a French Military Hospital Harold James Reckitt, 1921. Bulletin de la Société de géographie et d'études coloniales de Marseille, 1916. Bulletin de la Société de géographie et d'études coloniales de Marseille Société de géographie de Marseille, 1918.
